THE SEVEN LIVES OF THE FAMED SEA CLOUD

Luxurious family yacht, floating diplomatic palace, war vessel in the service of the U.S. Navy – the vita of the SEA CLOUD is more fascinating to read than many novels. In 1931, the Wall Street broker Edward Francis Hutton had the legendary windjammer built in Kiel calling her “Hussar”. But it was his wife, the extravagant Marjorie Merriweather Post, who gave the tall ship her distinctive character. She furnished the “Hussar” – at that time the largest private yacht in the world – with a sure sense of style and lovingly chosen antiques. At least nine months of the year, the Huttons spent at sea and headed for the most exotic destinations.

A NEW LIFE UNDER A NEW NAME

But their life in the lap of luxury soon became clouded: In 1935, the affluent couple got divorced, and Ed Hutton signed the “Hussar” over to his ex-wife. She had the previously black hull painted white and also gave her yacht a new name: The “Hussar” became the SEA CLOUD. And before the end of that year, Marjorie got married to her old friend Joseph E. Davies. Henceforth, the attractive socialite moved not only in the circles of economic magnates but also became familiar with the world of politics and diplomacy. When Davies took on the position of U.S. ambassador in Moscow in 1937, the SEA CLOUD was ordered to Leningrad as a floating (and bug-proof) diplomatic palace. Marjorie excelled at socialising within the diplomatic scene. Besides the Soviet notables, several crowned heads, among others from the Swedish and Belgian royal dynasties, happily accepted her invitations on board. But when Davies was appointed U.S. ambassador in Belgium in June 1938, the SEA CLOUD had to bid the USSR farewell.

A YACHT'S WAR SERVICE

Few guests only are aware of the significance of the small plaque that is affixed to the face side of the wheel house: Each of the five brass angles indicates six months of active war service for the USA. After the U.S. entered the war in 1941, the Navy began to acquire private yachts to reinforce the fleet; and Marjorie and Joe Davies committed the SEA CLOUD to the Coast Guard for the symbolic charter of one dollar – opinions differ whether this was from a patriotic sense of duty or due to economic necessity. With demounted masts and a grey coat of paint, the erstwhile proud luxury yacht cruised between the Azores and Greenland as a floating weather station.

BACK TO NEW SPLENDOUR

After the end of the war, the refurbishment of the SEA CLOUD was to take almost four years: Only in 1949, the windjammer, freshly painted white again, received an entire set of new sails. When she first appeared on the horizon under full sail, Joe said to Marjorie: “Well, dear, there goes your baby.” But meanwhile, someone else also coveted Marjorie’s baby: Rafael Leónidas Trujillo Molina, dictator of the Dominican Republic.

TEMPORARY RETIREMENT FOR A “QUEEN OF THE SEAS”

In 1955, Trujillo bought the ship and renamed it “Angelita”. Mostly, his son Ramfis used the presidential yacht – for parties with Hollywood stars like Zsa Zsa Gabor and Joan Collins. When Trujillo was shot dead on 30 May, 1961, a revolution unsettled his country. Carrying the dead body, part of the Trujillo clan and enormous amounts of cash, the “Angelita” set sail for Cannes. But the new government forced the crew to turn around: The expensive heirloom was renamed “Patria” and put up for sale again. Five years later, the Operation Sea Cruises Inc. under John Blue bought the ship. However, when the “Antarna” – that was the yacht’s new name – entered the U.S.

on the return journey from Naples, there was trouble with the authorities, and the “Antarna” was impounded. This was when Stephanie Gallagher appeared on the scene: At just 26 years of age, she was obsessed with the idea of an “Oceanic School” and academic learning at sea. Although “Oceanics” settled all unpaid invoices, John Blue retained the ship’s papers. Stephanie Gallagher set sail nevertheless – and was now chased as a “pirate”. In Panama, Blue finally came on board accompanied by attorneys and the police. Stephanie Gallagher had no choice but to give up.

RENAISSANCE OF A DREAM YACHT

For eight years, the “Antarna” was berthed unprotected in the port of Colón and exposed to the damp tropical climate. But she was not forgotten by the enthusiasts for proud sailing ships. One such aficionado was the German Hartmut Paschburg, sea captain and economist. Together with a group of merchants from Hamburg, he purchased the luxury yacht – and first of all, gave her back her old name, SEA CLOUD. But the hardest piece of work was yet to come:

Captain Paschburg had to bring his new acquisition home across the Atlantic. In 1978, he gathered 40 adventurous men and women and together, they made the dilapidated yacht seaworthy again, then sailing her back to Hamburg. The Howaldts-werke-Deutsche Werft AG in Kiel carried out the extensive overhauling and alteration work; and eight months later in 1979, the SEA CLOUD, now reflagged, went on her first cruise. Since her latest refurbishment in 2011, the windjammer not only conforms to the up-to-date SOLAS regulations (Safety Of Life At Sea) but shines in new splendour – as timelessly elegant as ever.

RELAXATION BENEATH THE SAILS

Prepare to embark on both an exciting sailing cruise and a relaxed holiday: Our two tall ships SEA CLOUD and SEA CLOUD II combine the best of both worlds. Whilst our crew climbs high up into the masts to set the sails by hand, down on deck our service team treats guests to a first-class service. Our elegant, exclusive yachts are the perfect place to experience the seamless combination of ancient seafaring tradition and a luxury modern-day break.

PASSIONATE ABOUT SAILING

A passion for exclusive tall ships and sophisticated indulgence has shaped the legacy of our two yachts since their creation. The American millionaire couple Edward F. Hutton and Marjorie Merriweather Post were already owners of several luxury vessels when, in 1929, they commissioned the construction of a new ship – one that would be larger and more extravagant than anything that had gone before. The legendary SEA CLOUD was born, a yacht whose beauty would, 70 years later, go on to inspire the building of its sister ship, the SEA CLOUD II. Yet as elegant as our two windjammers may be, these two vessels are imbued with sailing tradition: On these ships, sailing is not just for show – it is a true craft. When the orders ring out over the deck and the crew climb the masts to hoist the sails, every single manoeuvre marks a centuries-old ritual being brought to life.

TRULY AUTHENTIC, TRULY ROMANTIC

The sailing crew pulls with all their power on a hemp rope that disappears into the rigging twenty metres above their heads. The mighty sails flap in the fresh sea breeze, starting a tug-of-war with the team down below. Flawlessly polished brass shines in the sunlight. Then with one final strong tug on the main halyard, the yacht is ready to feel the full force of the wind – mission accomplished! It takes our crew almost one hour to hoist the sails by hand, and it is a fascinating spectacle each and every time. Once firmly enveloped in a romantic tall ship setting, you will understand just why our vessels are the most beautiful part of the adventure; after all, a voyage aboard a majestic tall ship is much more than just a cruise.

GENUINE AND PERSONAL SERVICE WITH STYLE

Part of the unique appeal of a private yacht is the intimacy of the setting and that feeling of being amongst friends. The SEA CLOUD and the SEA CLOUD II offer our guests exactly the same experience thanks to their sophisticated yet relaxed atmosphere. Our crew of around 60 is there to ensure that all of our guests on board – a maximum of 94 travellers from all over the world – enjoy a unique cruise that is tailored to their needs. Our personal service and laid-back ambience allow you to enjoy an exquisite experience at your own pace.

ARRIVE, RELAX, ENJOY

The whistling of the wind as it blows past the halyard and the gentle sound of the sea will soon banish away the stresses and strains of your daily routine. Your inner sense of time is all that matters on board – a time that is not measured in seconds, but in magical moments. Let the day go by without a care in the world, chat with your fellow guests whilst admiring the view, listen in on an interesting lecture, watch the captain at work on the bridge – or simply let your mind wander like the clouds in the perfect blue sky.

MOMENTS OF INDULGENCE FOR YOUR SENSES

It is the little, finer things in life that turn a cruise into an extraordinary experience. From the luxurious décor and the exquisite and creatively designed cuisine to our first-class service, on board the SEA CLOUD and the SEA CLOUD II we offer an exclusive holiday that is designed around you. Our entire crew takes great pleasure in treating every guest to a unique experience, and in exceeding expectations time and time again.

EXCLUSIVE DÉCOR, CHARMING DESIGN

Our ships exude a classic maritime atmosphere that is as timeless as the ocean. This splendid on-board ambience is completed by the exquisite, carefully chosen décor – be it the comfortable deckchairs that pepper our vast, elegant teak wood decks, the fine wood features that exude warmth and comfort, or our tastefully designed outside cabins which offer each guest an unobstructed view of the sea. Our own five-star style is also reflected in the countless small gestures and attention to detail shown by our staff. Welcome champagne awaits you in your cabin upon arrival, and you can end each day with selected bedtime sweets. The cabins are meticulously cleaned twice daily, your fruit basket is constantly kept replenished and the crew will welcome you back on board with a refreshment after each excursion. Aboard our ships your wish is our command. Our mission is to make all guests feel at home from the moment they set foot on board.

MORE THAN JUST A JOB: A TRUE CALLING

Ships were once the one and only passion of seafarers, and that still rings true for the crew on board the SEA CLOUD and the SEA CLOUD II today. For our staff, life on board both of our windjammers is more than just a job. You will find passion and a sense of belonging wherever you go on our ships: from the engine room to the masts, and from the bridge to the laundry room. Not only is their work pure perfection, it is also part of their identity. Many of our crew have been working together for many years and form part of a well-established team. Each guest is welcomed into this passionate group of seafarers with a warm smile, and, with loving attention to detail and charm, each member of staff will help ensure that your journey on board is as unique as you.

CULINARY DELIGHTS AT SEA

From fresh croissants to perfectly cooked beef tenderloin, the chefs on board our two windjammers apply all of their creativity and skill to providing guests with culinary delights from morning until night. They enhance their sophisticated menus with regional specialities and always prepare a vegetarian option too. An excursion to the local market or to selected merchants is not just a fun outing for the crew – their culinary conquests sometimes find their way back aboard the ship. Their exquisite dishes are served with the perfect accompaniment: outstanding, first-class wines – all at no extra cost. Our sommelier is passionate about the finest quality wines, exploring the cellars of prestigious wine-makers to bring you the most delectable flavours.

A RELAXED DINING EXPERIENCE

On board everyone sits down to enjoy their meals together, but there is no fixed seating plan: As with any private yacht, you simply sit wherever and with whomever you choose, thus leaving room for interesting table discussions, whether indulging in a formal dinner in our restaurant or a lunchtime buffet or evening barbecue in the sun at the beautifully decorated tables on deck. Experience true luxury beneath the sails, as you set a course for complete relaxation on board the legendary SEA CLOUD or within the comfortable setting of the SEA CLOUD II.

SEA CLOUD

THE LEGEND BENEATH WHITE SAILS

A self-assured grande dame, a stylish yet informal sailing icon and a generous host – the SEA CLOUD is a living legend. Built as a private luxury yacht, this ship combines extravagant charm with an authentic tall ship experience.

A PRIVATE YACHT WITH A FASCINATING HISTORY

Golden, swan-shaped taps, splendid marble fireplaces, French antiques – as heiress to a fortune totalling several million dollars, Marjorie Merriweather Post was able to let her imagination run free when it came to building her private yacht. In 1931 the “Hussar” (as the SEA CLOUD was originally named) was launched in Kiel. Together with her husband, the savvy stockbroker Edward Hutton, Marjorie turned this elegant four-masted barque into a stage for her eccentric lifestyle. Her friends included aristocracy and Hollywood stars, and politicians and diplomats often graced the decks of this windjammer.

WHERE INDULGENCE MEETS RELAXATION

Even today every detail on board this yacht shines with the glory of a bygone age. The SEA CLOUD's elegance appears timeless; proof that this vessel has lost none of its unconventional charm. Whether you are staying in one of its lovingly renovated original cabins, a cosy outside cabin or one of the former officers' cabins, the SEA CLOUD welcomes each guest on board like a long-standing friend. Rigid etiquette is nowhere to be found, not even in the oak-tabled restaurant. Sat at long tables, guests can enjoy the delicacies conjured up by the kitchen staff in a relaxed setting before retiring to a deck chair, to the lido bar or the cosy Blue Lagoon area for a moment of relaxation.

SEA CLOUD II

LUXURY CRUISE MEETS SAILING EXPERIENCE

Who says you cannot have it all? The tall ship SEA CLOUD II brings together the best of two worlds: This spacious three-masted barque offers all the amenities of a modern cruise ship whilst remaining a quintessential windjammer.

EXPANSIVE DECKS, GENEROUS CABINS AND MANY FAVOURITE PLACES

A cappuccino in the elegant lounge?
A spot of sunbathing on the lido deck? A quiet moment with a book in the library? There are many favourite places to be discovered on board the SEA CLOUD II. This tall ship bears all the hallmarks of its older sister, the legendary SEA CLOUD, and yet still has a charm all of its own. With its four expansive decks, amenities such as a sauna, gym, boutique and swim platform, as well as the generous range of facilities on offer in its guest cabins, the SEA CLOUD II proposes exclusive comforts that are sure to impress even seasoned cruise goers.

A WINDJAMMER ADVENTURE BATHED IN ELEGANCE

“Set sail!” – Guests will momentarily crane their necks upwards when the captain of the SEA CLOUD II gives the order to embark. The crew’s climb up into the shrouds marks the beginning of a spectacle that is much more than just a show. The SEA CLOUD II is a celebration of true sailing. When the ship was built 15 years ago, we deliberately decided against a fully-automatic rig; this ship’s sails are hoisted and lowered the traditional way – by hand. This allows guests to enjoy the romantic tall ship experience in refined exclusivity. Our 29 de luxe outside cabins, 16 junior suites and two owner suites accommodate a maximum of 94 guests on this voyage of relaxation.

Northern Europe

Archipelagos and amazing fjords, imposing castles and magnificent imperial architecture, picturesque gardens and elegant vineyards – this is Northern Europe at its very best.

Atlantic and Canaries

The Canary Islands and the Atlantic coast of Spain and Portugal delight in many ways, such as their art and culture, charming landscapes and relaxed way of life. Magical Morocco will draw you into the world of the Arabian Nights.

Lesser Antilles and Cuba

Tropical forests and bathing paradises make the Lesser Antilles, located between the British Virgin Islands and the Grenadines, a wonderful place for sailing. Cuba enchants with its retro-style Caribbean flair.

Atlantic Ocean

Central America

From mysterious Maya pyramids and colourful tropical landscapes to bustling cities and the technological brilliance of the Panama Canal – Central America is home to a range of fascinating attractions.

Western Mediterranean

Whether it be “dolce vita” or “savoir vivre” – the lifestyle on the coasts of Italy, Spain and France is one to cherish. Sunny islands, charming ports, quaint restaurants and historic locations provide the right setting for the Mediterranean way of life.

The Adriatic Sea

The magnificent palaces in Venice, baroque facades of Lecce, Dubrovnik’s brick red roofs, Marco Polo’s birthplace Korcula, the palm-fringed promenade in Split, and Ravenna’s splendid mosaics all are impressive proof that the Adriatic Sea has more than one jewel in its crown.

CARIBBEAN AND CUBA

The Lesser Antilles run through the turquoise Caribbean Sea like a shimmering string of pearls. The waters between the British Virgin Islands in the north and the Grenadines in the south provide the perfect sailing conditions for windjammers as well as intriguing insights into a highly diverse range of cultures and lifestyles. Want to go on an excursion through tropical green forests to the volcanic sulphur springs? Why not enjoy an exquisite sundowner while watching elegant luxury yachts or perhaps go barefoot into the beach bar? Fortunately there is no need to choose any particular highlight because every day will surprise you with a new and enjoyable feature.

Cuba really is the heart of the Caribbean. Today's tourists casually unfurl their towels right where the notorious pirates of the Caribbean once buried their treasures. The tiny islands off the coast of Cuba truly are Caribbean paradises. Havana offers a bright and colourful cocktail of colonial history, revolutionary heritage and a timeless joie de vivre. With the rapprochement of Cuba and the U.S., the heart of this diverse capital is now beating even faster. Whether on the Malecón seafront promenade, or in the little streets of the Old Town – an optimistic vibrancy permeates the warm summer air.

CENTRAL AMERICA, PANAMA AND COSTA RICA

Narrow, little houses with gabled roofs, market stalls and small cafés serving “Eierkoek” – if it was not for the radiant rays of sun and the white, palm-fringed beaches, you could easily mistake this area for a Dutch province. That is because the three ABC islands of Aruba, Bonaire and Curaçao playfully engage with their colonial past. And with their blend of European tradition and Caribbean living, they serve up a colourful cocktail that is sure to put a smile on your face.

Nature lovers will encounter a vibrant, tropical paradise brimming with natural wonders in Panama’s and Costa Rica’s unique national parks. In the treetops of the evergreen rainforests, mangrove swamps and warm, crystal clear waters, an abundance of fascinating animal species awaits. Follow this intensive natural encounter with a taste of urban life in trendy Panama City located close to the Panama Canal.

Now over 100 years old, this construction is still considered one of the greatest feats in human engineering. The same is also often said of the mystical Maya temple structures found in Mexico and Belize. These mysterious places of worship, with their impressive stepped pyramids and artistic stone relief carvings, have lost none of their magical appeal over the past several millennia.

WESTERN MEDITERRANEAN

Winding alleyways and elegant promenades, magnificent cathedrals and Moorish palaces, tranquil fishing villages and vibrant cities – the Western Mediterranean rewards travellers every day with new, exciting experiences. This region is not just a wonderful sailing area but also an enchanting place laden with history and stories, a lighthearted zest for life and dramatic landscapes.

From Andalusia to the Balearic Islands, from Corsica to the Côte d'Azur, from Sicily to the Amalfi Coast – our tall ships sail to the most beautiful destinations in Spain, France and Italy. What takes your fancy? A trip to a vibrant local market to try some of the region's olives? Mingling with luxury shoppers from the international jet set? Exploring the ruins of ancient temple complexes or hiking through pristine volcanic landscapes? There is no rush to decide. On board you will have plenty of peace and quiet in which to look forward to all the wide-ranging wonders of the Mediterranean.

THE ADRIATIC SEA

Framed by the Italian and the Balkan peninsulas, the Adriatic Sea not only connects six neighbouring countries but an amazing variety of different cultures. This is where in antiquity the Orient clashed with the Occident, where Venetians, Byzantines and Normans fought for hegemony – all of them leaving fascinating, historical marks.

In the once powerful trade centre Venice, the aristocracy had their names immortalised in splendid palaces and churches; in Bari, Apulian-Romanic churches and the Castello Svevo stand peacefully side by side, while Trieste shows the influence of the House of Habsburg to this day. On the Italian coast, also the baroque jewel Lecce, the atmospheric port Otranto, and Ravenna with its gorgeous mosaics, await modern explorers.

Opposite, on the Eastern Adriatic shore, a myriad of tiny islands promises thousands of new impressions. From the roaring waterfalls of Krka in Croatia to the romantic lanes in Rovinj's old quarter, from Korcula and Dubrovnik to the vibrant seaside promenades of Split and Zadar, the Adriatic Sea proudly shows that it has more than one jewel in its crown.

NORTHERN EUROPE AND THE ATLANTIC COAST

Proud Hanseatic cities, quaint artists' villages and sunny pilgrims' destinations – the grand old lady Europe shows all of her vibrant personality along the coasts of the Baltic Sea and the Atlantic. In Hamburg for instance, the new Elbphilharmonie bids our windjammer farewell when she leaves to follow the old trade routes of the Hanseatic League en route to Baltic ports full of character. Among red brick, white dunes, and the gold of tsars, the course through the northern summer stops at Nordic beauties like Copenhagen, Gdansk, Klaipeda, Stockholm, St Petersburg and Tallinn.

With their rough cliffs and the fortifications of Saint-Malo and Lorient, Normandy and Bretagne defy the Atlantic. But the wild North of France is also touchingly poetic: While a magical aura surrounds the Carnac Stones, Pont-Aven and Honfleur are bathed in the same light that already enchanted Gauguin, Renoir and Cézanne.

Among art, culture and culinary delights, all senses take a journey of discovery in Galicia and the Basque Country. From the pilgrimage site Santiago de Compostela to the Guggenheim Museum in Bilbao, from the beaches of the Islas Cíes to San Sebastián, the hub of gourmets – this countryside is living proof of how opposites attract. In 2018, it makes a tasteful backdrop for our culinary cruise.

CANARY ISLANDS AND MOROCCO

Whilst autumn winds are blowing the leaves from the trees elsewhere, the Canary Islands still have many months of sunshine ahead. These “Islands of Eternal Spring” may all share the same pleasant climate, but each one impresses with its own inimitable beauty. Gran Canaria and Tenerife offer vast beaches and a vibrant urban scene, whilst on El Hierro, La Palma and La Gomera you can experience the serenity of Mother Nature. With fine sand dunes, such as those found on Fuerteventura, and the peculiar lava-sculpted landscapes of Lanzarote, the Canary Islands are one of the planet’s most intriguing places to explore by sea and offer an abundance of unique scenery and culture.

The Moroccan coast lies a mere 60 nautical miles away. With bustling souks, scents of oriental spices and elaborately designed sultan’s palaces, the ancient imperial cities of Rabat, Marrakech and Taroudant instantly envelope visitors in a whirl-wind of bewitching sights, sounds and smells. This fairytale setting will leave you with memories that will last long after we have left port.

MAKE THE JOURNEY YOUR DESTINATION

Who can resist the magic that envelops you aboard a windjammer? White sails, proud masts and a golden eagle on the bow almost immediately evoke that romantic feeling of longing for far-away shores and adventures in the ocean's vast expanse. Just beyond the horizon you will find dreamlike harbours, secluded bays and fascinating cities waiting to be discovered. Yet some people may want a more intensive tall ship experience than others. That is why we offer different types of travel.

Those cruises which focus specifically on sailing have been marked with our small "sailing" symbol so that you can quickly and easily find the type of sailing holiday that best suits your ideal windjammer break.

EXPERIENCE LAND, SEA AND PEOPLE

The majority of our cruises offer a balanced mix of sailing time and exciting on-shore discoveries. Our windjammers mostly strike sail in places where picturesque harbours and anchorages invite you to set foot on land and to become acquainted with the local culture and way of life. It is the perfect opportunity to get out and discover more – either on your own or on one of our organised excursions.

DAYS AT SEA, NIGHTS IN PORT

On some of our sailing cruises our windjammers will only reach their destination late in the afternoon and will remain in port overnight. This means that sailing enthusiasts can spend many wonderful hours at sea whilst still having time in the evening to head off and explore each fascinating harbour town. A relaxed stroll through the port or old town is the perfect way to take in the local atmosphere.

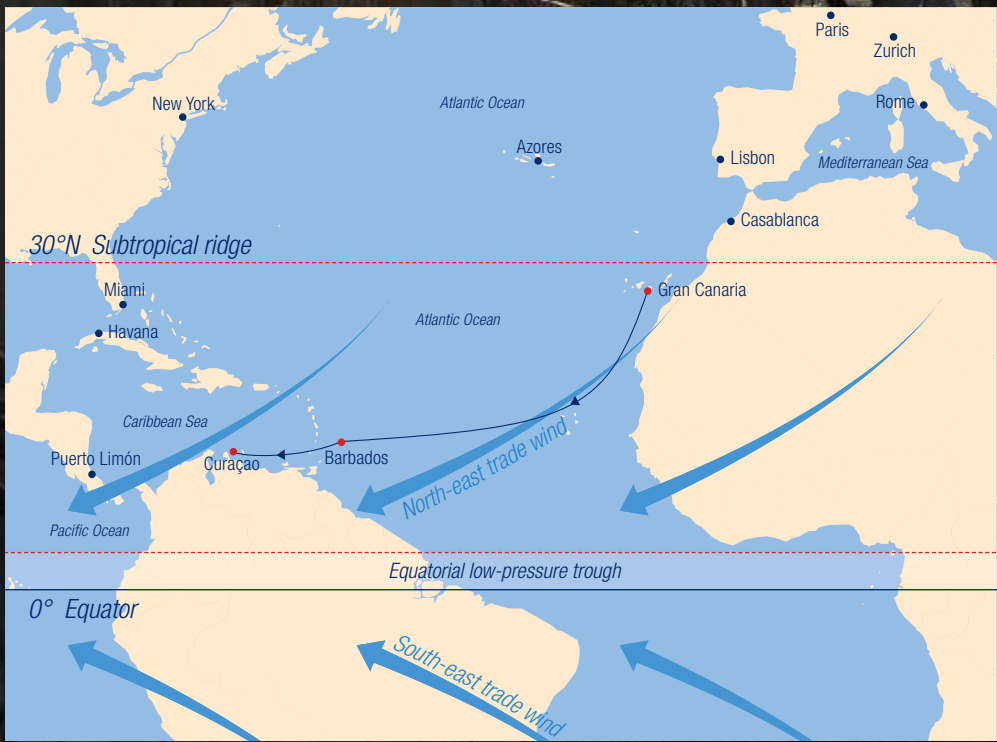

WHEREVER THE WIND TAKES US

Do you savour the journey more than the destination? If so, our sailing cruises without fixed itinerary might interest you. On these cruises, only the wind determines which route our proud windjammer will take, so that we spend as much time as possible at sea. Enjoy the mystery of not knowing your journey – which ports and islands we will visit will be decided from day to day.

ACROSS THE ATLANTIC UNDER BILLOWING SAILS

The Atlantic crossing is the trip of a lifetime – and a wonderful experience for true sailing fans. Two whole weeks alone with the ocean, two entire weeks devoted to sailing: Embark on the famous Columbus route between the Canary Islands and the Caribbean and completely give yourself over to the elements – This is the perfect way to truly escape your everyday routine. The following pages give an insight into the fascination of a Transatlantic cruise.

TRANSATLANTIC FASCINATION

Each year, at the end of November, long after the Atlantic hurricanes have passed, the SEA CLOUD and SEA CLOUD II embark on the most stunning cruise of the year and follow the Atlantic course sailed by Columbus in 1492. During the winter months, the trade winds create ideal conditions for sailing westward.

Close to the equator, the sun is almost vertical in the sky and shines straight down on the water, heating the air above the ocean's surface. Once warm, the air becomes lighter, rises and moves towards the poles on both sides of the equator. At around 30° north and 30° south, the masses of air have cooled to such an extent that they sink again and return to the equator in the form of steady westerly winds, known as the trade winds. This is what carries our two windjammers across the Atlantic with constant force.

From the Canaries, the route heads southward to the end of the trade winds, before a change of course westward towards Barbados or Curaçao – often sailing even at night when the sailing conditions are at their best. The temperature rises a little each day, and every evening is accompanied by a magnificent sunset.

TIME FOR THE OCEAN, TIME FOR YOU

Freedom is the central theme of an Atlantic cruise. This unique sailing experience offers two things in abundance: plenty of freedom for yourself and numerous opportunities to relax with your fellow passengers and the crew. As a guest on a Transatlantic cruise, you will find yourself among sailing fans and others who share the same interests as you. The intensive cruise experience creates close ties and makes you feel at home right away in this friendly, informal atmosphere. The captain, the officers and the deck crew are always happy to answer questions about the ship, sailing manoeuvres or course calculations. There is enough time for all the things you want to do. Escaping your daily routine for a whole fortnight is a luxurious experience. Enjoy taking some me time and true relaxation comes all by itself! If you fancy an even more intensive pamper programme, the SEA CLOUD II is the perfect ship for you. Head to the sauna or book a spa treatment or massage for an additional fee. Or, if you feel a bit more sporty, you can work out in our fitness room or jog some laps on the lido deck.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE: AN ENDLESS SEA OF OPPORTUNITIES

On board our ships, there is time for everything – except for boredom. Take advantage of the opportunity to tie some knots with the crew or send a message in a bottle out to sea. Why not get a short introduction to the art of sailing or enjoy watching the initiation ritual of crew members crossing the Atlantic for the first time, inclusive of a visit from Neptune himself! On each cruise, guest speakers, including round-the-world sailors, artists and performers, lead a range of exciting lectures and activities. Of course, it is important to treat the taste buds as well as the spirit. For two whole weeks you will experience truly luxurious food and drink from morning until night. Two entire weeks during which our first-class chefs will prove their talents – and they may even create some entertaining themed dinners too.

Architectural masterpieces, the luscious green of national parks, and the Panama Canal: San José (Puerto Caldera) – San José (Puerto Limón)

Granada – a UNESCO World Heritage Site

Situated picturesquely at the foot of a volcano and on the shore of a lake, the Nicaraguan town of Granada never ceases to conjure up stunning views of the natural and the man-made. Founded by the Spanish in 1524, for around 200 years it was one of the most influential towns in Central America. It is still considered an insider tip among the region's colonial pearls. The significance of its historical legacy has earned it a very special seal of approval: a place on the UNESCO World Heritage Site List.

Panama City and the Panama Canal

It took 30 eventful years until the Panama Canal was finally completed. In 2016, the new, three-tier lock system was brought into service. Travelling through the canal during the day is a truly special experience. Panama City is another absolute must-see: In the new trend destination of Central America, the historical quarter and the ultra-modern centre form an intriguing contrast.

The Coiba National Park

The Coiba National Park is one of the largest marine national parks in the world and was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2005. Made up of 38 smaller islands and the larger Coiba Island, the park is home to many indigenous plant and animal species. As this is also the ideal habitat for marine wildlife, you are more than likely to encounter one of the park's 23 whale and dolphin species.

Nature's lush paradises and a colourful underwater world; age-old Maya culture and Havana's new rhythm.

Costa Rica's national parks – a green paradise

As more than a quarter of Costa Rica's surface area is protected in the form of nature reserves, it provides a safe home for a truly unbelievable variety of flora and fauna. There seems to be no end to the natural highlights that await you in this peaceful little country, which has had no armed forces since 1948. The numerous national parks boast majestic volcanic craters and mysterious cloud forests alongside picturesque beaches and evergreen rainforests. The Tortuguero National Park can only be reached by sea or air because its landscape of canals and lagoons is so impenetrable.

Several relaxing days at sea

Besides crossing worlds and discovering new lands, we let relaxation take a front seat on our yacht for four whole days. Plenty of time to enjoy life under the white sails and be spoilt in every way.

The world's second largest coral reef

The Belize Barrier Reef is a 256-kilometre-long (159 miles) reef system which contains countless small coral islands. The Lighthouse Reef Atoll features a particularly special natural wonder: the Great Blue Hole. This circular submarine sinkhole, with a diameter of over 300 metres

(0.19 miles), was formed during the last ice age and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Donning your snorkel and getting an underwater view is obviously another great way to discover the impressive beauty of the reef.

Maya cities in Mexico and Belize

The sophisticated culture of the Maya in Central America, which began roughly 5,000 years ago and ended around the time of the Spanish conquest, is still a mystery. Their ceremonies seem to have been gory, their step pyramids imposing, and their stone carvings required a great deal of skill. On our trip you will discover three mystical Maya strongholds: Tulum, in Mexico, is the only Maya city situated on the coast; Altun Ha and Lamanai are located in Belize. Constructed on the banks of an inland lagoon, Lamanai remained populated for roughly 3,000 years. Excavations have revealed that over 20,000 people lived there around 700 AD.

Havana: a lively myth among rum, rhythm and revolution

Fat cigars, American vintage cars, baroque churches and facades of faded magnificence – Havana truly is a myth in itself. With the rapprochement of Cuba and the U.S., the heart of this diverse capital is now beating even faster. Whether on the Malecón seafront promenade, or in the little streets of the old town – an optimistic vibrancy permeates the warm summer air.

Beaches like powdered sugar and sugar barons' mansions; infectious rhythms and nature's paradises: Cienfuegos – Montego Bay

Trinidad's old town

Trinidad de Cuba is a small, friendly place with a long history as a centre for sugar cane farming. Its charming coastal setting, lovingly restored facades and gentle pace of life can be experienced in any of the town's beautiful squares and in the narrow, historic alleyways. This small town has a well-deserved place on the UNESCO World Heritage Site list.

The spirited music of Cuba

If Cuba is the birthplace of almost every Latin dance style, then Santiago de Cuba is the stage on which they are performed. Nowhere else will you find so much live music or dancing. In the town's clubs, bars and dance schools, the rhythms of salsa, son and rumba are omnipresent and just as thrilling as in the world-famous Buena Vista Social Club.

Port Antonio – natural beauty in Jamaica

Known for its reggae, Rastafarians and rum, Jamaica has many magical and serene natural settings to offer alongside its rousing rhythms. Port Antonio in the North East is the spot on the island with the most beautiful scenery. With its perfect beaches, lush tropical vegetation and countless caves, rivers and waterfalls, the area surrounding this small colonial town has been a celebrity hotspot since the 1940s, attracting famous visitors like Errol Flynn and providing the exotic backdrop for a number of films.

From volcanic plugs to the scent of vanilla – enjoy the colourful world of the Grenadines with all your senses: Barbados – Barbados

Tobago: an island paradise

The small fishing village of Charlotteville is situated in Tobago's idyllic Man-O-War Bay and can only be reached overland via a steep road which cuts through the rainforest. With the ship anchored in the town's picturesque bay, you will have plenty of time to discover the island.

Grenada – the island of spice

Although Grenada has been blessed with around 45 picture-perfect beaches, the country's real treasure remains its lush, green island interior. Deep volcanic lakes, dense rainforests, waterfalls and small river courses form the primordial backdrop for the island's sugar cane fields and spice plantations. Not surprising that the scent of cloves, cinnamon and nutmeg hangs in the air wherever you go on Grenada.

Snorkellers' paradise in the Tobago Cays

For many, life under water is a fascinating world – one that becomes even more magical the closer you get. The Tobago Cays' Horseshoe Reef is such a place. This horseshoe-shaped coral reef encloses four small islands that glow in rich shades of green. The sea, in contrast, embraces turquoise, emerald and every shade of blue.

The magnificent Pitons of St Lucia

Gros and Petit Piton, the two famous volcanic plugs that tower over St Lucia, could have come straight out of a tropical storybook. They are a UNESCO World Heritage Site and offer a spectacular panorama as the SEA CLOUD sails closely alongside their slopes.

Sailing Together

An Easter family reunion – SEA CLOUD and SEA CLOUD II sail side by side through the Lesser Antilles: Barbados – Antigua

A windjammer rendezvous in idyllic waters

When the SEA CLOUD meets the SEA CLOUD II against an exquisite Caribbean backdrop and they sail together, there is a real sense of joy at the reunion of these two ships. One moment, the windjammers glide majestically side by side; then again they compete in a playful race under full sail. The elegant sisters cruise for a whole afternoon between St Lucia and Martinique, offering some stunning photo opportunities.

Bequia: a sailors' haunt

Bequia is a very special gem in the picture-perfect island chain that is the Grenadines. For many years the island was known only to sailors and adventurers, which preserved much of its original, old Caribbean charm. With its colourful wooden houses, free-roaming hens and sailing yachts that span the full range of ages and prices, it is hard not to get swept up in the relaxing and uplifting atmosphere felt all over the island.

French style on the Îles des Saintes

The Îles des Saintes give such a welcoming first impression, though the historical Fort Napoléon that towers over the main island is a reminder of less peaceful times. This small town's promenade is perfect for taking a stroll, and here the savoir-vivre unfolds against a backdrop of the glowing pastel colours of the Caribbean.

Journey along the Andalusian coast, visiting proud seafarers' cities and Moorish palaces: Lisbon – Valencia

An enchanted farewell to Lisbon

As the SEA CLOUD pulls out of Lisbon, you will be treated to unique panoramic views of the Tagus. The epic Monument to the Discoveries is dedicated to Henry the Navigator. The Torre de Belém, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, celebrates the country's glory during its time as a colonial power.

The gentle pace of life in Cádiz

History comes alive in the city of Cádiz. One of Europe's oldest cities, this charming harbour town boasts a beautiful cathedral and baroque buildings, a tranquil old town and defiant watch towers. The town centre, with its delightful tapas bars, can be easily explored on foot from the harbour. And there is no shortage of good wine, as Jerez de la Frontera, with its sherry and wine cellars, is close by.

Seville, the capital of Andalusia

Visiting Seville, you walk right into Spain's eventful history – past the stony witnesses of its Moorish past and the glorious times as a maritime trade hub. Above the narrow lanes of the old town and the palm-fringed squares emerges the imposing Giralda: Originally built as a minaret of the main mosque, it was later incorporated into the cathedral as its bell tower.

A Moorish jewel: Granada

The citadel city of Granada in the south of Andalusia is one of the finest examples of Moorish architecture and Islamic art in Europe. Particularly impressive is the mighty Alhambra, constructed in the 13th and 14th centuries as a place of residence for the Nasrid dynasty. Its palaces, which are decorated in ornamental stucco and arabesques, together with its sturdy fortress walls and elegant gardens, make this citadel a magical World Heritage Site.

On a spring breeze to swanky Côte d’Azur and the characterful coasts of Corsica and Sicily: Nice – Malta

Calvi: the charming capital of La Balagne
Calvi, Corsica’s fourth largest town, lies nestled in the lush, green hills of La Balagne. The settlement is overlooked by an impressive citadel and drawbridge which stand proud upon a soaring promontory. Admire the shimmering beauty of the yachts moored in the harbour during a gentle stroll along the Quay Landry or make a brief stop in one of the town’s many street cafés and restaurants.

Bathed in gold: the Cappella Palatina and its mosaics

At the highest point of the medieval town centre in Palermo lies a castle whose roots can be traced back to the Normans. Its interior charm is truly breathtaking – especially the “Cappella Palatina” and its design with Arab, Byzantine and Norman influences. Stained glass and gold mosaics on the walls, a wooden ceiling richly adorned with Arab ornaments, and an artistic marble floor are what give this former Chapel Royal of the Palazzo Reale its dream-like fairy-tale atmosphere.

A stunning town with volcanic views: Taormina

Its list of admirers includes Goethe, Oscar Wilde and Liz Taylor. It seems the unique charm of Taormina in the north east of Sicily has always attracted famous summer visitors. One site that is particularly worth seeing is the town’s Roman amphitheatre built in the 2nd century BC: From the “Teatro Greco” you can enjoy a heavenly panoramic view of Mount Etna and the Giardini Naxos Bay.

Emerald green coasts, elegant ports, and Mediterranean flair between Sardinia, Corsica and Elba: Rome (Civitavecchia) – Rome (Civitavecchia)

The natural harbour of Bonifacio

Sailing into Bonifacio is quite simply a spectacular experience – a steep, shimmering white chalk cliff, a small town that appears to be floating magnificently on the plateau and a fjord-like bay which gives way to an elegant marina. Those who wish may explore the area’s medieval upper town or take a stroll along the promenade.

The beautiful Costa Smeralda

The emerald coast certainly lives up to its name; its waters sparkle and shimmer like a jewel with tones of green, blue and turquoise, “framed” by snow-white rock faces and beaches. This coastal area first came to prominence through its development by Aga Khan, who has been protecting the coast from architectural eyesores since the 1960s whilst preserving the area’s natural beauty and creating stylish, picturesque holiday resorts.

Calvi: the charming capital of La Balagne

Calvi, Corsica’s fourth largest town, lies nestled in the lush, green hills of La Balagne. The settlement is overlooked by an impressive citadel and drawbridge which stand proud upon a soaring promontory. Admire the shimmering beauty of the yachts moored in the harbour during a gentle stroll along the Quay Landry or make a brief stop in one of the town’s many street cafés and restaurants.

Portofino, de luxe fishing village

Here, you’d hardly be surprised if Sophia Loren and Grace Kelly strolled past. With its quaint lanes and brilliant houses that compete in shades of dusky pink, rusty red and ochre yellow, Portofino has been drawing the international jetset since the nineteen-fifties. The Piazzetta by the harbour offers the best views of white yachts, colourful fishing boats and elegant boutiques.

La dolce vita in a burst of colour – short cruise following Italy’s legendary nostalgic coast: Rome (Civitavecchia) – Rome (Civitavecchia)

A little break from your daily routine

It is amazing how quickly a sailing cruise can remove you from the everyday hustle and bustle of life! Once the wind swells the sails and the SEA CLOUD sets off into the distant horizon, you step into a whole new, unique world. No matter whether you are keen to enjoy the authentic windjammer atmosphere on board or discover the charming cities onshore, hundreds of new impressions will turn your little break into a wonderful experience.

Capri: destination of nostalgic dreams

Ever since the German painter August Kopisch discovered the Blue Grotto 190 years ago, Capri has been the epitome of Italian nostalgia. When the red sun is swallowed by the sea in the evenings and the day-trippers have left, the island exudes its true sentimental charm. Now, the little lanes and boutiques are all yours, and you can end your evening with a Limoncello on the Piazzetta.

The scenic Amalfi Coast

Violet bougainvillea in front of pastel pink facades; houses clinging to the cliffs like swallows’ nests; a grand open staircase looking out onto the glistening turquoise sea – Sorrent, Positano and Amalfi sometimes seem too good to be true. But the colourful, romantic fishing villages are real. In 1997, the UNESCO declared the Amalfi Coast a World Heritage Site.

Antique, baroque, and romantic – Italian impressions between Sicily, Apulia and Venice: Malta – Venice

Syracuse: UNESCO World Heritage Site

Cicero once described Syracuse as “the greatest and most beautiful of the Greek cities”. Up to a million people are claimed to have lived there in antiquity. This city on the small island of Ortygia was later conquered first by the Romans, then by Arabs, Byzantines and Normans. They have left behind a unique architectural heritage: UNESCO declared Syracuse a World Heritage Site in 2005 due to its archaeological importance.

The Florence of the South: Lecce

Lecce is considered one of the most beautiful towns in southern Italy. Thanks to a special form of tuff stone, the town evolved into a splendid baroque city with richly decorated facades gleaming in white and gold. In Otranto there is no better way to see out the day than with a stroll through the lively old town.

Between modernity and tradition: Bari

The wide boulevard Corso Emanuele II in Bari connects two very different worlds. While magnificent patrician houses and elegant shops dominate the new town, history comes alive in the old town with its labyrinth of narrow lanes. Most of this quarter has been reconstructed and so, modern tavernas and young galleries can now be found besides the Castello Svevo and numerous Apulian-Romanic churches.

Korcula, birthplace of Marco Polo

Just like his phantastic journey to China, Marco Polo's roots are shrouded in legend. The people of Korcula, however, are convinced: The famous discoverer was born on this charming island. Wandering through the medieval old town, you will find Marco Polo's birthplace next to the Cathedral of St Mark.

Follow the trail of Venetian merchants to magnificent palaces, charming cities and the natural treasures of the Adriatic Sea: Venice – Venice

An enchanted farewell to Venice

No other farewell is as romantic and melancholic as the route taken by the SEA CLOUD as it leaves the Floating City. Our tall ship slowly sails past all of Venice's famous buildings and offers a panoramic view of the magnificent St Mark's Square, the Campanile, the Bridge of Sighs and the Doge's Palace.

Split – the Adriatic metropolis

Split was originally established as a retirement home for the Roman Emperor Diocletian. However, his palace, which took only ten years to build, soon encompassed two main roads, a number of villas, military and civilian constructions and several sacred buildings. This historical complex covers an area of roughly 30,000 square metres (323,000 square feet) and now stands at the centre of the beautiful old town. It undoubtedly deserves its title as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Culinary Istria

Even in ancient times, Istrian olives were famed for their special flavour. Nowadays, the region's multi-award winning olive oil is prized by connoisseurs. Also much sought after among gourmets is the "white gold", otherwise known as the white truffle. On a culinary excursion you will experience many of the region's specialities.

An ancient multicultural city: Trieste

Trieste's colourful history is reflected in its cuisine: From palatschinke to souvlaki, prosciutto to baccalà mantecato, the town has been shaped by the culinary influences of Austria, Istria and Greece. Trieste has long been considered a cultural melting pot; once a key port on the Slovenian border, it used to attract merchants from all over the world.

Sailing in the Adriatic Sea – enjoy pure windjammer feeling and the Mediterranean way of life: Dubrovnik – Malta

Sail wherever the wind takes you

On this trip our legendary tall ship will show you exactly what it was born to do, with nothing but the wind determining its course and the captain obeying its orders. Just how many knots can the SEA CLOUD get up to? At how many ports will it call? You will find the answers on each hour and each one of the six days at sea.

Just one goal: relaxation

For seven whole days you can enjoy your trip without any organised stops, schedules, or timetables. The freedom you experience beneath the sails knows no bounds; here you will find the perfect place to relax. Time passes slowly as you effortlessly unwind and relaxation takes hold.

Time for individual shore excursions

Although the most important part of a sailing cruise is the experience on board a windjammer, some interesting destinations also await you on land. The Adriatic has an abundance of attractive port towns and charming cities with a diverse history. Their historic centres with small shops and cafés are best explored during a relaxing walk.

A lecturer accompanies the trip

Exciting topics, background information and fascinating facts – our expert offers talks on a whole range of subjects from his specialist field.

Palazzi, pastels and Limoncello – take in Italy’s colourful diversity with all your senses: Naples – Monte Carlo

The scenic Amalfi Coast

Violet bougainvillea in front of pastel pink facades; houses clinging to the cliffs like swallows’ nests; a grand open staircase looking out onto the glistening turquoise sea – Sorrent, Positano and Amalfi sometimes seem too good to be true. But the colourful, romantic fishing villages are real. In 1997, the UNESCO declared the Amalfi Coast a World Heritage Site.

Artful and ornate – Florence

Florence is a synthesis of the arts: From the smallest relief to the largest palazzo, from the Uffizi Gallery to the street painter, the Tuscan metropolis offers an abundance of art. The historical trade hub owes its riches in art and architecture to the Medici family, who promoted artists like Botticelli and Michelangelo and erected impressive architectural gems such as the Basilica di San Lorenzo.

Cinque Terre: five villages above the cliff tops

Alongside a coastal stretch of only about 12 kilometres (7.5 miles), the five Ligurian villages of the Cinque Terre sit like pearls on a string. The view from the sea offers a fascinating panorama: Brightly coloured, the dreamy villages Monterosso, Vernazza, Corniglia, Manarola and Riomaggiore look out through the vineyards above sheer cliffs plunging steeply into the sea.

Menton, sweet town of lemons

Where Nice and Cannes show off, Menton impresses with elegant restraint. The sweet little town on the Eastern Côte d’Azur is a lot less touristy than its flashy neighbours, enchanting visitors with Italian flair and pastel-coloured facades in its old town. As the legendary town of lemons, Menton is living proof of how wonderfully sour “la dolce vita” can be.

Fishing villages, artists' colonies and elegant boulevards – diversity par excellence: Monte Carlo – Barcelona

The many facets of Southern France

From medieval mountain villages with little markets to deluxe marinas where super yachts abound – the French Mediterranean coast is full of diversity. In some parts dreamy and rustic with pine forests and vineyards, it invites elsewhere to stroll along elegant boulevards. Artists have always loved this coast, which charms them with its mellow light.

Glamorous Monte Carlo

Formula One races in its narrow streets; gambling in the world's most famed casino; opulent productions in its opera house – people in Monte Carlo like to enjoy life to the full. Fancy a walk from Monaco's harbour with its luxury yachts up the hill to the palace and cathedral? If you'd rather save your strength, you can simply take the escalator.

Provençal living in Aix

Its successful blend of baroque elegance and a lively student scene is one of the reasons why Aix-en-Provence ranks amongst France's top five of the most popular places to live. Stroll under the old plane trees of the famous Cours Mirabeau for a taste of this Provençal capital's history; its main boulevard is lined with small bistros and antique shops, elegant residences, fountains and boutiques.

The small port town of Collioure

A tiny chapel on the rock, a picturesque fortified church and the mighty Château Royal are the first sights to greet you as you approach this small port from the sea. Collioure is a textbook example of a charming fishing village that has always attracted painters and poets thanks to its idyllic coastal location, colourful facades and fascinating light.

One week in late summer to discover Spain's golden coast and the Balearic Islands: Barcelona – Valencia

Barcelona and its famous architect

When Antoni Gaudí died in 1926 after the collision with a tram, all of Barcelona grieved. Like no other public figure, the idiosyncratic architect shaped the city with his fairy-tale buildings full of organic shapes and extravagant ideas. Plans are to complete his masterpiece, the Sagrada Família, by 2026, one hundred years after Gaudí's death.

Tarragona: a smaller Rome in Spain

As a busy provincial town, antique Tarragona was like little Rome in Iberia. Triumphal arches, aqueducts, the amphitheatre and the Forum Romanum are witnesses of its glorious past. And if you feel like toasting so much history, there is no shortage of wine: For over 2,000 years, this area has been a popular wine-growing region.

Three Balearic Islands with character

The Balearic Islands can hardly be generalised, because each of the pretty islands has its individual character. While nature lovers prefer Menorca as a wild and romantic paradise, Mallorca entices with busy seaside towns and idyllic rural villages. And among its typical white square houses and colourful hippie markets, charming Ibiza conveys pure relaxation.

Sailing Together

Two windjammers on one course – SEA CLOUD and SEA CLOUD II sail together along Spain’s sunny coast: Valencia – Casablanca

Sailing side by side with the SEA CLOUD II
Few and far between are the occasions, on which one can experience two fascinating windjammers together and directly compare their manoeuvres. Sailing from Valencia to Casablanca, the two SEA CLOUD sisters follow the same course for several days. When both yachts glide along side by side under full sail, they offer a truly breathtaking spectacle.

A Moorish jewel: Granada

The citadel city of Granada in the south of Andalusia is one of the finest examples of Moorish architecture and Islamic art in Europe. Particularly impressive is the mighty Alhambra, constructed in the 13th and 14th centuries as a place of residence for the Nasrid dynasty. Its palaces, which are decorated in ornamental stucco and arabesques, together with its sturdy fortress walls and elegant gardens, make this citadel a magical World Heritage Site. Enjoy this fascinating location during an exclusive evening visit.

The gentle pace of life in Cádiz

History comes alive in the city of Cádiz. One of Europe’s oldest cities, this charming harbour town boasts a beautiful cathedral and baroque buildings, a tranquil old town and defiant watch towers. The town centre, with its delightful tapas bars, can be easily explored on foot from the harbour. And there is no shortage of good wine, as Jerez de la Frontera, with its sherry and wine cellars, is close by.

Together with the SEA CLOUD II from magical Morocco to six enchanting Canarian sisters: Casablanca – Las Palmas

Majestic city panorama: Taroudant

Taroudant was once the residence of a Berber ruler, a rich hub for caravans and an important place for trade. The town is lovingly referred to as “Marrakech’s little sister”. The lively Medina is entered through an imposing wall, in front of which lie swathes of olive and orange plantations, and behind which you will see the snow-covered peaks of the High Atlas mountains.

The diversity of the Canary Islands

On this cruise, you visit six of the seven Canary Islands, stopping at Gran Canaria, Tenerife, Lanzarote, El Hierro, La Palma and La Gomera. Walking along the promenades, through narrow alleyways or alongside the sea, you can experience the diverse character of these islands: from cosmopolitan style in Las Palmas to quiet introspection in rustic San Sebastián.

Pure nature: stunning national parks

Magical trade mists, gnarled pine trees, babbling head streams – the Canary Islands’ national parks guarantee protection for some of their most outstanding ecosystems. Whilst Garajonay’s misty evergreen forest boasts over 1000 animal species, Caldera de Taburiente and Las Cañadas del Teide impress with their rugged volcanic craters and rock formations.

Windjammer nostalgia meets explorers' spirit – the pure sailing experience from Europe to the Caribbean: Las Palmas – Sto. Domingo

An authentic sailing experience

Crossing the Atlantic on a traditional tall ship is an experience that leaves a lasting impression. For 16 days your exact course is determined only by the elements. When the crew sets the sails at dizzying heights, the wind fills the canvas and the ropes stretch and creak, you will experience a tangible sense of freedom.

Following in Columbus' footsteps

What would have been going through Columbus' mind as he set sail in 1492? It is virtually impossible to sail across the Atlantic in the discoverer's footsteps without constantly considering his thoughts and ideas. Columbus had not yet discovered the trade winds, which provide ideal sailing conditions in the westerly direction during the winter months, but nowadays we know that they guarantee fantastic sailing for the SEA CLOUD on its way to the Caribbean.

Relax and enjoy

Great adventures do not always mean great effort. For 17 days we sail a westward course across the Atlantic, always heading towards a magnificent sunset. It will not be long before you sit back and relax; surrounded by vast horizons and looked after by an attentive crew, you will leave your every-day stress behind in no time at all.

A lecturer accompanies the trip

Our lecturer will come thoroughly prepared for the two weeks at sea, ready to give you fascinating insights into his/her area of expertise as part of varied and entertaining talks.

Exploring the dream destination for tall ships: Head for ten treasure islands, luscious green volcanoes and colourful underwater worlds.

Stunning islands: St Lucia and Dominica

Although St Lucia is not considered a saint by everyone, the island is certainly the true queen of this idyllic realm. Even from a distance, its twin volcanic peaks, the Pitons, proffer a regal greeting to the approaching SEA CLOUD. And once we have docked, the island welcomes us with its lush tropical scenery. Dominica, unofficially dubbed “Nature Island”, is proud of its unspoilt scenery. One of its national parks is even a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Luxury in a relaxed atmosphere on St Barts

Known for attracting a certain class of visitor, St Barthélemy has been a top holiday destination for the rich and famous from around the world ever since billionaire David Rockefeller discovered the island back in the 1960s. St Barts is all about quality not quantity, so you are more likely to brush shoulders with Hollywood stars than with tourists on its 22 white sandy beaches. In the capital Gustavia, houses with red roofs nestled into the green hills look just like rows of spectators in an amphitheatre, transforming the idyllic port into an impressive stage. As you walk along the luxurious promenade, you will be sure to pass by some spectacular yachts.

The British Virgin Islands – a sailor’s paradise

With more than 60 islands and reefs (of which just 16 are inhabited), the British Virgin Islands are a real dream destination. Fans of sailing from all around the world are drawn to their idyllic and tropically warm waters, and the quaint beach bars bring together everyone from luxury yacht owners to solo sailors. It is so easy to get used to the care-free lifestyle, and with your feet in the sand as you gaze out over green hills and the tranquil sea, you will soon forget about the stresses of everyday life back home.

Snorkellers’ paradise in the Tobago Cays

For many, life under water is a fascinating world – one that becomes even more magical the closer you get. The Tobago Cays’ Horseshoe Reef is such a place. This horseshoe-shaped coral reef encloses four small islands that glow in rich shades of green. The sea, in contrast, embraces turquoise, emerald and every shade of blue.

A delight for all the senses: Grenada, the island of spice

There is a reason why nutmeg is immortalised on this country’s national flag. Since colonial times, nutmeg – along with cloves, cinnamon and ginger – has been one of the island’s most important exports. If the aromatic fragrance of the tropics were to have a name, it would have to be “Grenada”.

French style on the Îles des Saintes

The Îles des Saintes give such a welcoming first impression, though the historical Fort Napoléon that towers over the main island is a reminder of less peaceful times. This small town’s promenade is perfect for taking a stroll, and the savoir-vivre of life here unfolds against a backdrop of the glowing pastel colours of the Caribbean.

Follow the route Columbus took across the Atlantic – set sail for new horizons on a voyage of discovery: Las Palmas – Barbados

True sailing experience

For two whole weeks, the expansive ocean becomes the home of the SEA CLOUD II. The currents of the trade winds, which Columbus followed from the Canaries to the West Indies 500 years ago, propel the windjammer forward. Completely in sync, the crew works hand in hand as the white sails billow majestically in the breeze. No doubt, taking a Transatlantic cruise is one of the most authentic sailing adventures.

Take some “me time”

Journeying across the Atlantic, nothing will distract you from your favourite book or from gazing out to sea and letting your thoughts wander. Among sailing aficionados, contact is quickly established, and in the relaxed atmosphere on board you will soon be talking to like-minded fellow travelers.

Lecturers on board:

Dr Klaus Liedtke looks back on an extraordinary career: He worked as war reporter, White House correspondent, TV presenter, and is the author of numerous books. For more than 20 years, Liedtke wrote for the German weekly magazine “Stern”, eventually as editor in chief. He then established the German issue of “National Geographic”. His talks cover a wide range of subjects.

The astrophysicist Thomas W. Kraupe studied mathematics and physics at Munich University and specialised in X-ray astronomy. As its director, Thomas Kraupe transformed the venerable Hamburg Planetarium – one of the largest in northern Germany – into an innovative and worldwide unique digital theatre.

Depending upon the circumstances, it is possible that other lecturers will join this cruise instead.

Stunning volcanic scenery and island hideaways on the sunny side of the Lesser Antilles and the Grenadines.

Stunning islands: St Lucia and Dominica

Although St Lucia is not considered a saint by everyone, the island is certainly the true queen of this idyllic realm. Even from a distance, its twin volcanic peaks, the Pitons, proffer a regal greeting to the approaching SEA CLOUD II. And once we have docked, the island welcomes us with its lush tropical scenery. Dominica, unofficially dubbed “Nature Island”, is proud of its unspoilt scenery. One of its national parks is even a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

St Kitts – a piece of history

“No need to hurry” is truly the motto of St Kitts! The island is not very quick to make changes: Where you might have expected grandiose hotel palaces, you will instead find the lovingly restored villas from the former French and British colonial rulers. And the fortress still sits atop Brimstone Hill surrounded by cannon defences as it did 300 years ago. Equally breathtaking is the unspoiled view it offers over the lush green volcanoes and the neighbouring islands of St Eustatius and Nevis.

The British Virgin Islands – a sailor’s paradise

With more than 60 islands and reefs (of which only 16 are inhabited), the British Virgin Islands are a real dream destination. Fans of sailing from all around the world are drawn to their idyllic and tropically warm waters, and the quaint beach bars bring together everyone from luxury yacht owners to solo sailors. It is so easy to get used to the care-free lifestyle, and with your feet in the sand as you gaze out over green hills and the tranquil sea, you will soon forget about the stresses of everyday life back home.

Luxury in a relaxed atmosphere on St Barts

Known for attracting a certain class of visitor, St Barthélemy has been a top holiday destination for the rich and famous ever since billionaire David Rockefeller discovered the island back in the nineteen-sixties. St Barts is all about quality not quantity, so you are more likely to brush shoulders with Hollywood stars than with tourists on its 22 white sandy beaches. In the capital Gustavia, houses with red roofs nestled into the green hills look just like rows of spectators in an amphitheatre, transforming the idyllic port into an impressive stage. As you walk along the luxurious promenade, you will be sure to pass by some spectacular yachts.

French style on the Îles des Saintes

The Îles des Saintes give such a welcoming first impression, though the historical Fort Napoléon that towers over the main island is a reminder of less peaceful times. This small town’s promenade is perfect for taking a stroll, and here the savoir-vivre unfolds against a backdrop of the glowing pastel colours of the Caribbean.

Snorkellers’ paradise in the Tobago Cays

For many, life under water is a fascinating world – one that becomes even more magical the closer you get. The Tobago Cays’ Horseshoe Reef is such a place. This horseshoe-shaped coral reef encloses four small islands that glow in rich shades of green. The sea, in contrast, embraces turquoise, emerald and every shade of blue.

A delight for all the senses: Grenada, the island of spice

There is a reason why nutmeg is immortalised on this country’s national flag. Since colonial times, nutmeg – along with cloves, cinnamon and ginger – has been one of the island’s most important exports. If the aromatic fragrance of the tropics were to have a name, it would have to be “Grenada”.

A new island a day on the horizon – discover the diversity of the Lesser Antilles under sails filled with the trade wind: Antigua – Barbados

The natural beauty spots of St Lucia and Dominica

The pitons of St Lucia are world famous and magnificently beautiful. But perhaps even more beautiful is the unique view you will have of this stunning natural masterpiece from the SEA CLOUD II's anchorage. Dominica is one of the wildest and most primal of the Lesser Antilles. The heart of the island is covered in thick virgin forest, where you will find plunging rivers and small creeks winding their way through the jungle.

Bequia: a sailors' haunt

Bequia is a very special gem in the picture-perfect island chain that is the Grenadines. For many years the island was known only to sailors and adventurers, which preserved much of its original, old Caribbean charm. With its colourful wooden houses, free-roaming hens and sailing yachts that span the full range of ages and prices, it is hard not to get swept up in the relaxing and uplifting atmosphere felt all over the island.

Grenada – the island of spice

Although Grenada has been blessed with around 45 picture-perfect beaches, the country's real treasure remains its lush, green island interior. Deep volcanic lakes, dense rainforests, waterfalls and small river courses form the primordial backdrop of the island's sugar cane fields and spice plantations. Not surprising that the scent of cloves, cinnamon and nutmeg hangs in the air wherever you go on Grenada.

Snorkellers' paradise in the Tobago Cays

A unique feature of the Tobago Cays is their unspoilt coral reef, known as the "Horseshoe Reef" due to its shape. It keeps the Atlantic swells at bay and is the perfect place for snorkelling. Once back on dry land, you will be treated to a beach barbecue with culinary specialities.

“The Baths” – imposing granite formations

It is sometimes easy to think that this is one of nature’s fairy tales: Once upon a time, there was a giant who played with large stone marbles. His favourite playground was in Virgin Gorda, a place now called “The Baths” – a gigantic rock labyrinth made out of circular-shaped granite.

Regatta on the jet set island of St Barts

The fact that St Barts can only be reached by small aircraft often attracts international celebrities who come to enjoy relaxing days on the tranquil beach or head to the capital of Gustavia. A highlight for sports fans is the Bucket Regatta, a remarkable sailing event which is held in March every year and sees 30 stylish superyachts compete against one another.

St Kitts – a piece of history

“No need to hurry” is truly the motto of St Kitts! The island is not very quick to make changes: Where you might have expected grandiose hotel palaces, you will instead find the lovingly restored villas from the former French and British colonial rulers. And the fortress still

This horseshoe-shaped coral reef encloses four small islands that glow in rich shades of green. The sea, in contrast, embraces turquoise, emerald and every shade of blue.

Stunning islands: St Lucia and Dominica

Although St Lucia is not considered a saint by everyone, the island is certainly the true queen of this idyllic realm. Even from a distance, its twin volcanic peaks, the Pitons, proffer a regal greeting to the approaching SEA CLOUD II. And once we have docked, the island welcomes us with its lush tropical scenery. Dominica, unofficially dubbed “Nature Island”, is proud of its unspoilt scenery. One of its national parks is even a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

French style on the Îles des Saintes

The Îles des Saintes give such a welcoming first impression, though the historical Fort Napoléon that towers over the main island is a reminder of less peaceful times. This small town’s promenade is perfect for taking a stroll, and here the savoir-vivre unfolds against a backdrop of the glowing pastel colours of the Caribbean.

The wind in the sails, the feet in the sand – setting course for dream islands with colonial flair and nature’s magic: Antigua – Antigua

The British Virgin Islands – a beautiful sailing destination

The British Virgin Islands, with their white sandy beaches, coral reefs and friendly beach bars, are made up of 60 islands and reefs. When cruising along the Sir Francis Drake Channel, the SEA CLOUD II calls at two of its stunning natural beauty spots. The tiny islands dotted in the water and warm, gentle breezes make this waterway – named after the famous seafarer – a veritable paradise for sailors.

“The Baths” – imposing granite formations

It is sometimes easy to think that this is one of nature’s fairy tales: Once upon a time, there was a giant who played with large stone marbles. His favourite playground was in Virgin Gorda, a place now called “The Baths” – a gigantic rock labyrinth made out of circular-shaped granite.

Regatta on the jet set island of St Barts

The fact that St Barts can only be reached by small aircraft often attracts international celebrities who come to enjoy relaxing days on the tranquil beach or head to the capital of Gustavia. A highlight for sports fans is the Bucket Regatta, a remarkable sailing event which is held in March every year and sees 30 stylish superyachts compete against one another.

Caribbean joie de vivre, nature in all its glory, and French holiday flair: Antigua – Antigua

Snorkellers' paradise in the Tobago Cays

For many, life under water is a fascinating world – one that becomes even more magical the closer you get. The Tobago Cays' Horseshoe Reef is such a place.  Sailing Together

Windjammer atmosphere at Easter – natural paradises, famous sailors’ haunts and sailing alongside the SEA CLOUD: Antigua – Barbados

A windjammer rendezvous in idyllic waters

When the SEA CLOUD II meets the SEA CLOUD against an exquisite Caribbean backdrop and they sail together, there is a real sense of joy at the reunion of these two ships. One moment, the windjammers glide majestically side by side; then again they compete in a playful race under full sail. The elegant sisters cruise for a whole afternoon between St Lucia and Martinique, offering some stunning photo opportunities.

The jet set island of St Barts

St Barthélemy has had several masters: the Spanish, the Swedes, the French and the Knights of Malta. However, it is now firmly in the hands of the jet set, who comes here for short breaks to get away from it all. All of the yachts in the harbour are worth looking at, as are the bars and restaurants.

The magnificent Pitons of St Lucia

Gros and Petit Piton, the two famous volcanic plugs that tower over St Lucia, could have come straight out of a tropical storybook. They are a UNESCO World Heritage Site and offer a spectacular panorama as the SEA CLOUD II sails closely alongside their slopes.

A lecturer accompanies the trip

Relaxing short cruise along Spain's sunny coast: Málaga – Barcelona

Ibiza, entertaining island between culture and nature

Party spot, hippie retreat, nature's paradise – it is hardly surprising that UNESCO has singled out Ibiza as "Mixed World Heritage Site". The Balearic beauty does not fit into any one island category: From the little restaurants in its labyrinthine old quarter to the salt flats populated by flamingos, Ibiza sparkles merrily in a thousand colourful facets.

A fascinating mix in Valencia

Many bygone eras have left their mark on Valencia, but this historical legacy is juxtaposed with an impressive mixture of magnificent modern buildings. It is this vast spectrum that gives the city its unique appeal. The off-beat design of the opera house appears futuristic, with the building situated in an expansive museum and park district that stretches from the city centre all the way to the coast.

Tarragona: A smaller Rome in Spain

As a busy provincial town, antique Tarragona was like little Rome in Iberia. Triumphal arches, aqueducts, the amphitheatre and the Forum Romanum are witnesses of its glorious past. And if you feel like toasting so much history, there's no shortage of wine: For over 2,000 years, this area has been a popular wine-growing region.

See spring awaken at sea on a diversified journey from the Côte d'Azur to the Italian Riviera: Nice - Rome (Civitavecchia)

Glamorous by tradition: the Côte d'Azur

Sun, sea and the scent of mimosas: In the 19th century affluent Englishmen and Russians fell in love with the Côte d'Azur when trying to escape their cold winters. In Nice, they immortalised themselves with glamorous hotels and the palm-fringed promenade. Antibes in contrast reflects much older history, enticing visitors with a medieval old town and its cathedral from the 16th century.

Calvi: the charming capital of La Balagne

Calvi, Corsica's fourth largest town, lies nestled in the lush, green hills of La Balagne. The settlement is overlooked by an impressive citadel and drawbridge which stand proud upon a soaring promontory. Admire the shimmering beauty of the yachts moored in the harbour during a gentle stroll along the Quay Landry or make a brief stop in one of the town's many street cafés and restaurants.

Portofino, de luxe fishing village

Here, you'd hardly be surprised if Sophia Loren and Grace Kelly strolled past. With its quaint lanes and brilliant houses that compete in shades of dusky pink, rusty red and ochre yellow, Portofino has been drawing the international jetset since the nineteen-fifties. The Piazzetta by the harbour offers the best views of white yachts, colourful fishing boats and elegant boutiques.

Take the windjammer and sail into spring – for a long weekend in Southern France: Nice – Nice

Short break from your daily routine

Although in the calendar, spring starts in mid March, it often seems to take forever until the first warmer days arrive. If you do not want to wait any longer, simply sail away from your daily chores and enjoy a long weekend at sea. On board our windjammer it is easy to unwind and take in the fresh breeze and sunshine.

Saint-Paul-de-Vence, village of artists

Framed by cypresses and orange trees, Saint-Paul-de-Vence sits peacefully on its sunny hill, looking like a mountain village straight out of a picture book. Artists have always been inspired by its light and the glorious view, above all the painters Picasso, Chagall and Matisse. Today, art aficionados are strolling through the studios and galleries or pay a visit to the museum of the Maeght Foundation.

Say goodbye to every-day routine and enjoy a few days of spring on the sunny shores of the Mediterranean: Nice – Rome (Civitavecchia)

Take a sunny little break

It does not always need a three-week holiday – by taking short trips in-between, you are sure to add welcome and healthy moments of relaxation to your life. On board our windjammer, you will start to unwind immediately: When the mighty sails flap and snap in the wind, the salty breeze soon clears the head from any stress and thoughts of work.

Elba, island pearl in Tuscany

A lively town with a pretty port, hidden beaches of sand and pebbles, crystal-clear water – isn't that just the place you would wish for for your exile? Napoleon still only endured Elba for ten months. But during this short time, he made his mark on the island: He arranged for streets and hospitals to be built, had mulberry trees planted and encouraged the cultivation of wine and olives.

Corsica, Sardinia and the Balearic Islands – six characterful islands with enchanting nature and charming ports: Rome (Civitavecchia) – Málaga

The natural harbour of Bonifacio

Sailing into Bonifacio is quite simply a spectacular experience – a steep, shimmering white chalk cliff, a small town that appears to be floating magnificently on the plateau and a fjord-like bay which gives way to an elegant marina. Those who wish may explore the area’s medieval upper town or take a stroll along the promenade.

Alghero: Sardinia’s “Little Barcelona”

Following the Phoenicians, the Carthaginians, Saracen pirates and the Genoese, Alghero was conquered in 1354 by the Catalans. Many inhabitants still speak Catalan today and they lovingly refer to their city as “Little Barcelona”. A gentle stroll along the walkway that crowns Alghero’s impressive sea walls promises majestic views of the picturesque harbour on one side and the Gothic old town on the other.

Taking in all four Balearic Islands

Admittedly, with its magnificent coastline and picturesque inland villages, Mallorca seems a logical first choice for most of those holidaying on these islands. But it would be a real shame to miss its little sisters. This is why the SEA CLOUD II visits them all: Menorca, the wildly romantic natural beauty, Ibiza’s medieval capital, and family-friendly Formentera with its fishing ports and fine sandy beaches.

Young pianists, exclusive concerts and relaxation beneath the sails – the Steinway cruise for lovers of music.

At Steinway every piano is a masterpiece

For many the Steinway name is synonymous with the piano – and for good reason, as ever since Henry E. Steinway and his sons founded their company in New York in 1853, Steinway & Sons has produced first-class pianos, every one of which is a masterpiece with character. Thanks to their passion for innovation and unfailing attention to detail, today Steinway is considered the founder of modern piano manufacturing.

Promoting a new generation of pianists

Steinway & Sons is committed to promoting young pianists and supports them through the Steinway Prize-winner Concert Network. Although many young musicians have a great deal of talent and flair, they mostly remain unknown in the music world. This is where Steinway comes into play: Highly talented musicians are selected in first-class piano competitions and are given the opportunity to introduce themselves to a broad audience at international performances.

Emerging talents

Is there anything more exciting than to witness the beginning of a great artist's career first hand? A laureate chosen by Steinway will travel on the SEA CLOUD II from Portsmouth to Hamburg and play two concerts on board. And high-class musical enjoyment not only awaits you at sea but also during a private concert in the stylish ambiance of a traditional British Club.

Also on board: Ulrich Gerhartz

Born in Hamburg, Ulrich Gerhartz learned the profession of piano maker in the factory of Steinway & Sons, completing his education with the title of Master Piano Maker. During this time, he came to value the philosophy and mission of Steinway & Sons and its founder Heinrich Engelhard Steinweg: to build the best possible piano.

His first two years he spent in London in the Restoration Centre of the Steinway Hall where he learned to refurbish old Steinway & Sons pianos. In 1992, he transferred to the "Concert" department and was promoted to Director of the Concert & Artists' Service two years later. He keeps close working relations with the world's best pianists and worked, for instance, with Alfred Brendel right up to Brendel's last concert in Vienna.

In addition to his work in Great Britain, Ulrich Gerhartz regularly visits the Hamburg factory to choose new pianos and meet with the research departments. Time and again, he also supports pianists during their concerts in the U.S., Canada, Australia, Israel and various European countries and looks after some of the pianos in concert halls all over the world.

On board, he will give several entertaining talks on the history and construction of the piano.

Depending upon the circumstances, it is possible that another expert will join this cruise instead.

London in good company, the Honfleur of the impressionists, and historic canals in Bruges: London (Portsmouth) – Hamburg

Honfleur, paradise for painters

With its colourful fishing boats and soaring timbered houses, Honfleur offers visitors a truly picturesque setting. The enchanting little port is considered the cradle of impressionism – Eugène Boudin, Monet, Renoir and Cézanne met here to paint. In addition to enjoying the abounding art, don't miss out on Normandy's culinary masterpieces: cider, calvados and camembert.

Bruges: UNESCO World Heritage Site

Be it English cloth merchants, Hamburg's moneybags or traders from Castile, trade has been at the heart of life in this Hanseatic city for centuries. Even today there are still great shopping opportunities in the charming medieval old town of Bruges. As you stroll past ramparts, windmills and romantic canals, you will discover all sorts of artistic and culinary delights in the small boutique shops.

Following the routes of proud Hanseatic cogs to Baltic and Scandinavian ports steeped in tradition.

A panoramic trip along the Elbe

The SEA CLOUD II departs from Hamburg's harbour and glides along the Elbe at a leisurely pace. Past the patrician mansions of the Elbchaussee, stair-lined Blankenese, the Airbus grounds and the picturesque banks of the Elbe with their green dykes.

Seven countries in 13 days

From the distinctive architecture of Scandinavia to the fairytale romance of St Petersburg and its golden cupolas: The Baltic Sea offers a range of unique and vastly differing impressions. On its journey, our windjammer will call at ports in seven countries offering countless UNESCO World Heritage Sites and a fascinating insight into the scenic and cultural diversity of this region.

Gdansk: a city with many stories to tell

Founded over one thousand years ago and renowned as a cosmopolitan, wealthy trade port, Gdansk is one of Poland's most beautiful cities. The "Rechtstadt" in the heart of the city is a must, enchanting visitors with delightful small streets and a wealth of historical sights: St Mary's Basilica, Arthur's Court and the Golden Gate are all easily accessible on foot.

Shifting sand dunes and wooden houses: the Curonian Spit

Even Thomas Mann could see the Curonian Spit's potential as a tourist spot. Enormous shifting sand dunes tower over this small strip of land that separates the Baltic Sea from the Curonian Lagoon, earning this UNESCO World Heritage Site the epithet "The Sahara of East Prussia". Klaipeda, situated on the northern end of the spit, is west Lithuania's cultural centre, enchanting visitors with quaint timber-framed houses and neo-Gothic architecture.

Stockholm and its archipelago

On mild summer evenings, Sweden's capital city exudes a Mediterranean joie de vivre. Stockholm is creative and in tune with nature, welcoming and historical, a shopping paradise and home of the Royal Palace. Upon departure in the evening, you will be greeted by an idyllic view of the old town island before entering the enchanting world of the skerry landscape and its 30,000 islands.

St Petersburg – the old city of the tsars

In 1703, Tsar Peter the Great charged the best architects of his day with the planning of a perfect and harmonious city. The result was one of the most brilliant cities of old Europe. Thanks to its abundance of unique buildings, including the Church of the Resurrection, St Isaac's Cathedral, the Hermitage and the Catherine Palace, the old capital city of the Russian Empire is still considered an architectural marvel today.

Three cheers for Europe – summer journey to beautiful places in Normandy, Brittany and the Basque Country: London (Portsmouth) – Bilbao

Honfleur, paradise for painters

With its colourful fishing boats and soaring timbered houses, Honfleur offers visitors a truly picturesque setting. The enchanting little port is considered the cradle of impressionism – Eugène Boudin, Monet, Renoir and Cézanne met here to paint. In addition to enjoying the abounding art, don't miss out on Normandy's culinary masterpieces: cider, calvados and camembert.

Saint-Malo and the Mont St Michel

Strong fortified walls and heavy canons still bear witness to what life was like in Saint-Malo in the 18th century. From here, the corsairs started their raids, adding considerably to the wealth of the town. At the other end of the bay, the Mont St Michel also presents itself well-fortified: like a mighty bastion, the monastery fortress rises from the tidal flats.

A jewel in the Atlantic: Belle-Île-en-Mer

It is easy to imagine that this island was the birthplace of summer; as soon as the sun rises over this Breton isle, the cafés and squares are instantly filled with the friendly chatter of locals, accordion players and women selling their wares in the market. With its serene atmosphere, the port of Le Palais is the perfect place for individual discovery.

Exquisite wines, culinary diversity and local specialties – a journey for gourmets through gastronomic Northern Spain.

In the four Northern provinces Basque Country, Cantabria, Asturia and Galicia, the fascinating interaction of mountains and the sea has a strong influence on both the landscape and the culinary art.

While the Basque Country is considered a stronghold of gourmets due to its numerous Michelin-starred restaurants and famous “Pintxos”, the neighbouring province Cantabria also offers an appealing variety of high-class produce. Besides its abundance of fresh fish, seafood and delectable cheeses, gourmets and top chefs particularly value the meat of the Cantabrian domestic cattle breeds Pardo Alpina, Tudanca and Monchina, which are related to the long-extinct aurochs. A bit more down-to-earth is Galicia; here the preparation of fish and shellfish is a little simpler and influenced by the proximity to Portugal.

But gourmets not only enthuse about the fantastic culinary delights of the entire region, also the tasty high-class wines are not to be missed. Nowadays, the wine-growing regions of Rioja and Ribera del Duero, together with the Catalonian Priorat, represent the pinnacle of Spanish wine growing and have yielded extremely well-known wines.

During this seven-day cruise, we bring the gastronomic region of Northern Spain on board the SEA CLOUD II. Our head chef, a guest sommelier and a Michelin-starred chef of the FEINE PRIVATHOTELS invite you to discover the choice cuisine and outstanding wines of this area.

Also on board:

For many years, we have shared with FEINE PRIVATHOTELS an enthusiasm for individual hospitality and high culinary standards. Many of the hotels have been repeatedly awarded for their cuisine. And thus we look forward to welcoming a Michelin-starred chef from one of our partner hotels on board during this cruise, who – in addition to our own head chef – will pamper your palate with a carefully chosen menu.

Also, many famous wines originate from this area. To give you deeper insights into this topic, a professional wine expert will be on board, holding talks and offering wine tastings, during which you will sample wines from Rioja, Priorat and Ribera del Duero.

From pilgrimage towns to heavenly nature – the Basque Country, Galicia and Portugal at their best: Bilbao – Lisbon

Medieval gem: Santillana del Mar

Wooden balconies adorned with flowers, gardens hidden behind thick walls, and small Renaissance palaces – there is something to be discovered on every corner of Santillana del Mar's old town. You should definitely allow time for these two highlights: the Santa Juliana collegiate church that gave the pilgrimage town its name, and the Cave of Altamira with its famous parietal cave paintings.

Santiago de Compostela – a place of pilgrimage

Santiago de Compostela, one of the world's most famous pilgrimage sites, is the final stop and climax of the Way of St James – a pilgrimage route that has been followed since the 11th century. During this time, the city's magnificent cathedral was also established as one of the most important pilgrimage sites in Christianity, alongside Rome and Jerusalem. This building, together with the old town, is protected by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site.

The Islas Cíes Nature Reserve

According to Galician legend, the Cíes archipelago is the place where God rested on the seventh day after he created the world – and it is easy to see why. The site, now a nature reserve, encompasses a substantial area of sea and three islands which, with their steep coasts, sand dunes and small forests, are perfect for individual hikes.

The approach to Lisbon

Before pulling into the port of Lisbon, the SEA CLOUD II treats you to singular panoramic views along the Tagus. You pass the Torre de Bélem, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that celebrates the splendour of the former colonial world power. Just a few hundred metres further on, you are greeted by the gigantic Monument to the Discoveries, dedicated to Henry the Navigator.

This carefree savoir-vivre is not just a privilege of the high society who made the Côte d’Azur their playground in the nineteen-sixties. Optimism is quite the custom here – and the relaxed attitude is infectious.

The city’s cathedral with its beautifully carved doors, the Atelier Cézanne, Baroque facades – there is no shortage of captivating sights for culture lovers in Aix-en-Provence. The blue sea, green pines and white gold – a dazzling mosaic of cultures on the shores of the Adriatic Sea: Malta – Venice

The Florence of the South: Lecce

Lecce, situated on the heel of the Italian boot in the ruggedly romantic Apulia region, is considered one of the most beautiful towns in southern Italy. Thanks to a special form of tuff stone, the town evolved into a splendid baroque city with its richly decorated facades gleaming in white and gold. In Otranto there is no better way to see out the day than with a stroll through the lively old town.

Zadar: more than 2,000 years of history

With its modern promenade, which replaced the monotonous concrete harbour wall, Zadar has been given a new lease of life. The city's pride and joy is the unique sea organ from which the waves coax deep soft sounds. On its steps, you can relax in the evening after strolling through the fortified old town with the monumental Church of St Donatus, the square of five wells, and four medieval gates.

Culinary Istria

Even in ancient times, Istrian olives were famed for their special flavour. Nowadays, the region's multi-award winning olive oil is prized by connoisseurs. Also much sought after among gourmets is the "white gold", otherwise known as the white truffle. On a culinary excursion you will experience many of the region's specialities.

Ravenna – the city of mosaics

Ravenna is a real treasure chest, bursting with magnificent mosaics and well-preserved monuments, including eight UNESCO World Heritage Sites. The Basilica of San Vitale is one such example. Although unremarkable from the outside, its mesmerising interior is covered from floor to ceiling in thousands of glistening tiles.

Few and far between are the occasions, on which one can experience two fascinating windjammers together and directly compare their manoeuvres. Sailing from Valencia to Casablanca, the two SEA CLOUD sisters follow the same course for several days. When both yachts glide along side by side under full sail, they offer a truly breathtaking spectacle.

A Moorish jewel: Granada

The citadel city of Granada in the south of Andalusia is one of the finest examples of Moorish architecture and Islamic art in Europe. Particularly impressive is the mighty Alhambra, constructed in the 13th and 14th centuries as a place of residence for the Nasrid dynasty. Its palaces, which are decorated in ornamental stucco and arabesques, together with its sturdy fortress walls and elegant gardens, make this citadel a magical World Heritage Site. Enjoy this fascinating location during an exclusive evening visit.

The gentle pace of life in Cádiz

History comes alive in the city of Cádiz. One of Europe's oldest cities, this charming harbour town boasts a beautiful cathedral and baroque buildings, a tranquil old town and defiant watch towers. The town centre, with its delightful tapas bars, can be easily explored on foot from the harbour. And there is no shortage of good wine, as Jerez de la Frontera, with its sherry and wine cellars, is close by.

Sailing side by side with the SEA CLOUD from mystical Morocco to three very different Canary Islands: Casablanca – Las Palmas

Windjammer rendezvous off the Canaries

Few and far between are the occasions, on which one can experience two fascinating windjammers together and directly compare their manoeuvres. Sailing from Casablanca to Las Palmas, the two SEA CLOUD sisters follow the same course for several days. When both yachts glide along side by side under full sail, they offer a truly breathtaking spectacle.

Majestic city panorama: Taroudant

Taroudant was once the residence of a Berber ruler, a rich hub for caravans and an important place for trade. The town is lovingly referred to as “Marrakech’s little sister”. The lively Medina is entered through an imposing wall, in front of which lie swathes of olive and orange plantations, and behind which you will see the snow-covered peaks of the High Atlas mountains.

Lanzarote and its famous architect

With his vision of a harmonious link between mankind and nature, César Manrique transformed Lanzarote into a work of art. This surrealist painter, architect, sculptor, designer and conservationist created colourful wind chimes and wall mosaics, turned lava caves into homes and tirelessly fought to ensure the preservation of the natural and cultural identity of his island of birth.

Escape autumn for a long weekend to enjoy the sun and nature of the Canaries: Las Palmas – Las Palmas

A short break from your daily routine

Neither golden autumn nor the white of winter – the last days of November are hanging over the calendar just like a sad grey rain cloud. If you don't feel like doom and gloom, leave your daily routine and the hot water bottle behind and escape to the islands of eternal spring. On the Canaries, you can recharge your batteries with plenty of sun.

Sailing with the trade winds around the Canary Islands

Beautiful days of sailing are guaranteed, when the Azores high sends steady north-easterly trade winds to the Canaries. At comfortable four to five Beaufort and agreeable temperatures of around 20 degrees, the windjammer explores the sunny shores of Gran Canaria, La Gomera and Tenerife over a long weekend.

Magic forest and moonscape: two famous national parks

These two UNESCO world natural heritage sites could hardly be more different: While the evergreen cloud forest Garajonay at the heart of La Gomera offers fascinating scenery made up of rivers, waterfalls and dense moss, Tenerife's Las Cañadas del Teide national park is extremely dry. With tall lava tongues and bizarre rock formations, its volcanic landscape looks almost like the surface of the moon.

SAILING

Sail across the Atlantic Ocean in the tradition of Columbus and Vespucci and discover the New World: Las Palmas – Curaçao

Pure sailing adventure

For two whole weeks, the expansive ocean becomes the home of the SEA CLOUD II. The currents of the trade winds propel the windjammer forward. Our well-rehearsed crew works seamlessly together as the white sails billow majestically in the breeze. On a Transatlantic cruise you will certainly experience one of the most authentic sailing adventures. And as we make our way to the New World, the worries of everyday life will vanish as fast as the eastern shore.

Follow the course of Columbus

More than 500 years after Columbus, it is not just windjammer enthusiasts who will be awestruck by this reenactment of his famous voyage. As the SEA CLOUD II follows the legendary shipping route from the Canaries to the West Indies, it brings the magic of those great adventures to life. All the voyagers on board will be left with unforgettable memories.

Discover a haven of tranquillity

As you cruise across the Atlantic, you will for once be able to read your favourite book without distraction or allow your thoughts to roam as you gaze out over the horizon. The attentive crew will intuitively meet your every need and the relaxed atmosphere is the perfect catalyst for a pleasant conversation.

With the trade winds from the pastel-coloured ABC islands to grand colonial ports: Curaçao – Panama City (Colón)

Trip to the ABC islands

Aruba, Bonaire and Curaçao – the alphabet of the Caribbean begins with these three islands off the coast of Venezuela. The ABC islands are considered the “Netherlands of the Caribbean”, and their Dutch colonial past is still visible in the pastel-coloured architecture. There are plenty of colours on show underwater, too: Their breathtaking biodiversity renders these three island beauties a Mecca for water sports fans.

Idyllic sailing along the trade winds

Throughout winter and spring, the Caribbean trade winds provide ideal speeds and perfect stability while delivering extremely pleasant air and water temperatures. The many hours out at sea are a real joy for the tall ship and a delight for those looking to enjoy the freedom beneath the sails. All this in stunning waters.

Cartagena’s colonial centre

When in the old days, the Spanish fleet entered the port twice a year to sell weapons and horses and load gold, silver and gems, all of Cartagena was out and about. Founded in 1533, the historic town exudes the flair of colonial times until today. With its colourful houses, Andalusian palaces and numerous churches, the historical centre is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Fascinating flora and fauna, the metropolis of Panama City and the Panama Canal experience.

Costa Rica's Pacific coast: perfect sailing waters

The sea surrounding Costa Rica is the perfect place for sailing – and the SEA CLOUD II is the perfect yacht to sail in. Our ship will cruise between the far-flung national parks, ensuring that you arrive completely refreshed and ready to begin each new adventure on land.

Panama City and the Panama Canal

It took 30 eventful years until the Panama Canal was finally completed. In 2016, the new, three-tier lock system was brought into service. Travelling through the canal during the day is a truly special experience. Panama City is another absolute must-see: In the new trend destination of Central America, the historical quarter and the ultra-modern centre form an intriguing contrast.

The picture-perfect beaches of Costa Rica and Panama

On the tranquil coasts of Costa Rica and Panama, unforgettable natural scenery and beautiful relaxing beaches can be found just a few steps away from one another. Paradisiacal conservation areas blend into charming bays, and shady palms line the beaches as if on a picture postcard. What is more, if you really just want to relax, you will find the perfect place to do so in the soft sand of Coiba, Tortuga and the Pearl Islands.

The most beautiful national parks in Panama and Costa Rica

Experience an incredible eleven distinct landscapes on this journey, all of them starkly different. On the way you will also discover a phenomenally diverse range of unspoilt natural scenery, from rainforests, imposing volcanic settings and mysterious river banks to picturesque beaches and national marine parks. One of them, the Coiba National Park, is also a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The Corcovado National Park, one of Costa Rica's oldest rainforests, is located on the Pacific Peninsula of Osa. This park is home to roughly 400 species of birds; and many other animals have been spotted roaming this forest.

Granada – a UNESCO World Heritage Site

Situated picturesquely at the foot of a volcano and on the shore of a lake, the Nicaraguan town of Granada never ceases to conjure up stunning views of the natural and the man-made. Founded by the Spanish in 1524, it was one of the most influential towns in Central America for around 200 years. It is still considered an insider tip among the region's colonial pearls. The significance of its historical legacy has earned it a very special seal of approval: a place on the UNESCO World Heritage Site List.

A lecturer accompanies the trip

You are bound to have some questions about all the fascinating flora and fauna found in the national parks we visit on our trip. For that reason, a scientist who knows all there is to know about the region's varying ecosystems will be on board to provide you with the answers. He will be joining us for the entire journey, giving talks and accompanying us on excursions.

Cabins on board the SEA CLOUD II are also equipped with a television, a DVD player and a radio.

Changes of schedule:

Even with the most meticulous route planning, changes to the itinerary may be necessary due to weather conditions or other unforeseeable circumstances. You will be kept informed on board about any necessary changes.

Computer/e-mail/Internet:

A laptop is available free of charge in the library (SEA CLOUD II) or the lounge (SEA CLOUD). You can access the Internet using an access code (Wi-Fi) with this laptop or your own laptop. This is subject to a charge. You can get the code from the reception or the purser.

During the day, and depending on the weather, a sophisticated summer look is suitable. For the evening, we recommend smart-casual wear. We also kindly request that guests refrain from wearing shorts at evening meals. The Captain's Dinner (an event which normally takes place twice on each trip – once on short cruises) is a time when our guests tend to opt for a more elegant look. We recommend a suit for men and appropriate smart dress for women.

Electric voltage:

The voltage on board is 220 V. Each bathroom is equipped with a razor socket.

Gratuities:

Gratuities are not included in the cruise-only rate and are at each passenger's discretion. At the end of the voyage, designated tip envelopes will be available. As a guideline, we suggest € 14 per person per day on the SEA CLOUD and the SEA CLOUD II.

For your own personal comfort, we provide a range of spa services on board the SEA CLOUD II (massages and beauty treatments at an extra charge), using the finest products from Maria Galland.

Medical advice:

The SEA CLOUD and the SEA CLOUD II both have on-board hospitals managed by the ship's doctor, who is available at any time in the event of an emergency. No lifts are available on our yachts, and guests will have to use the stairs, therefore you should make sure you are in good physical health before embarking on one of our voyages. If you are unsure whether you will be able to manage the conditions on board, please contact us. Specific care must be agreed upon in advance.

On-board programme:

The main attraction is, of course, sailing and seafaring skills on board our windjammers. Lecturers and artists are also on board on selected voyages, offering stimulating talks or additional entertainment. In addition, guests can borrow books (in both English and German), popular board games, as well as DVDs (SEA CLOUD II only).

In accordance with the European regulation concerning the liability of carriers of passengers by sea in the event of accidents, we are under obligation to notify passengers of their rights in the event of an accident at sea. Terms and Conditions of Travel of the Company
SEA CLOUD CRUISES GmbH in its capacity as Tour Organizer for SY SEA CLOUD and SY SEA CLOUD II

Dear Guest,

We hope that you have found the appropriate vacation trip in our programme, and we welcome you to the exclusive circle of SEA CLOUD CRUISES GmbH (SCC) guests. Please read the following Information and Conditions carefully so that you will know exactly what you can expect from us. The information and conditions regulate the contractual relationship between you and us, and you shall recognize them with your reservation. We are striving to relieve you of troubles and worries in as far as humanly possible. The delineation of our responsibility is designed to provide clarity regarding what you may expect and our liability.

1. Application and Travel Confirmation

1.1. Via your tour application, you are offering SCC, in a binding manner, the opportunity to close a travel agreement. Your tour registration may transpire in writing. The travel agreement will only become binding from the time that we confirm the reservation and the price to you or your travel agent in writing.

1.2. The applicant is liable for all contractual obligations of other tour participants that he/she registers provided that he/she has expressly confirmed to do so.

1.3. You shall receive a travel confirmation upon conclusion of the contract or without delay thereafter. The confirmation shall contain all essential information regarding travel performances you have reserved, provided that said information does not already follow from the travel brochure.

1.4. All personal data, which you submit to us for handling your trip, is subject to the provisions of the Federal Data Protection Act. Data will be protected against improper use.

1.5. If the subject-matter of the confirmation of the holiday deviates from the subject-matter of the booking, then a new offer by SCC is in existence to which it is bound for the duration of 10 days. The contract comes into existence on the basis of this new offer if the traveller declares his/her acceptance to SCC in writing or by payment within the commitment period.

2. Payment

2.1. You are required to make a down-payment of 10% per person within one week following receipt of the travel confirmation and the invoice. The remaining balance shall be due for payment four weeks prior to commencement of travel and before receipt of travel documents (tickets, etc.). The entire tour price is due for immediate payment in the event of applications made at short notice.

2.2. If the traveller is in default with a payment to SCC, SCC can cancel the contract. In this case SCC can claim cancellation fees in accordance with paragraph 5.2.

2.3. The travel contract will be cancelled automatically if payment is not received by the beginning of travel. In this instance, SCC will be entitled to demand corresponding cancellation charges as compensation for damages according to paragraph 5.2.

2.4. The customer is required to bear the cost of ancillary performances, such as acquiring a visa, etc., as well as the costs for reservations or inquiries made by telegraph or telephone.

2.5. All payments must be made directly to SCC. The travel agency is not authorized to receive payments. Payments to the intermediary travel agency will be made at the traveller's own risk and will have no debt-discharging effect should the travel agency fail to forward the payments to SCC.

3. Performances and Prices

3.1. The scope of contractual performances arises from the travel itinerary and from the travel confirmation.

3.2. Service package

Included are:

- cruise in the reserved cabin including full board and soft drinks. Table wines are included at meal times;
- all transfers and luggage transport mentioned in the programme;
- all overnight stays mentioned in the programme;
- all meals mentioned in the programme;
- all sightseeing tours mentioned in the programme (German or English), if not stated otherwise;
- harbour and docking fees.

The following items are not included:

tips, excess luggage, additional meals, beverages (so far as not expressly included), optional excursions, other personal expenses.

3.3. Flights

SCC only arranges flights as intermediary if this is expressly stated in the confirmation of travel. Carriage is booked in the Tourist Class; also in the Business or First Class at extra tariff cost in as far as these are available. Flights on days other than the travel days booked e.g. as a result of pre- or post-programmes can lead to extra costs. The airlines always only accept seat reservations as non-binding wishes.

The conditions of carriage of the airlines for whose flights we act as intermediary are binding. We shall be pleased to provide these to you on request.

Depending on the selection of flights it can happen that the outward flight is in the late afternoon or evening, but the return flight is in the morning. There is no claim for compensation for catering services not used at the location.

3.4. Luggage conveyance

Up to 20 kg luggage per flight passenger will be conveyed (First Class 30 kg). For travel to some countries (incl. USA, Canada, Mexico and within Germany) measurements are based not on the weight, but instead on the number of luggage items and their dimensions. Excess luggage can in principle be carried at extra cost. Children under the age of two have no claim to luggage conveyance.

Please report damage or delays in delivery promptly on the spot to the relevant airline via a Property Irregularity Report (P.I.R.). The report is a prerequisite for any liability.

3.5. Services not used by traveller

SCC shall endeavour to obtain reimbursement of saved costs from the service provider if the traveller fails to utilize travel services due to premature return journey and in other significant cases. This shall not apply if services are fully irrelevant or if a refund is opposed by legal or official regulations. SCC is entitled to retain 20% of the refundable amount as compensation for additional effort and expenses.

4. Modification of Services and Prices

4.1. A change of airline company, of aircraft or of the departure and arrival airport may become necessary should an airline cancel a flight and e.g. in the event of failure of the airline to comply with the flight schedule. Right is retained to effect such kind of change or modification in such or similar instances.

Only costs, equivalent to a second class railroad journey, will be refunded in the event of substitute transportation.

4.2. Changes in the trip's itinerary are possible for ship voyages, e.g. in case of floodings or low water level, inclement weather conditions, governmental regulations, if the vessel could not adhere to its schedule at the time that travel commences because of an unforeseen technical defect that causes postponement of the trip itinerary, if the vessel's management alters the vessel's course in the interest of passengers' safety or any other special reason related to the ship travel. In any such cases SCC has the right to make use of other means of transportation such as but not limited to coaches and buses for some routes.

4.3. Any such and comparable divergences from and modifications to individual travel performances contained in the travel agreement, which become necessary after the agreement is closed, and which are not induced by SCC contrary to the principles of good faith and trust, are solely permissible, if they are not substantial and if they do not impede the overall tailored style of the reserved trip.

The modified performance shall supersede the performance due under contract. Contingent claims under warranty shall remain unaffected, in as far as substitute performance is flawed.

In the event that the overall tailored style of the reserved trip is unreasonably modified due to said substitute performances, then we shall grant you the option to change your reservations, free of charge, or to cancel the travel agreement without paying any fees. SCC shall undertake to immediately inform you of any such divergences or modifications, in as far as possible.

4.4. SCC reserves the right to alter the indicated prices, which have been confirmed on booking, in the case of an increase of transportation costs or of fees for particular services, such as port or airport charges, bunker surcharges, insurance fees or in the case of an alteration of the exchange rates applicable to the holiday in question, to the extent to which this increase has an effect on the price of the holiday per person or per seat, provided more than four months lie between the conclusion of the contract and the stipulated date of the holiday.

In the case of a subsequent amendment to the price of the holiday or of an amendment to an essential travel service, SCC must inform the traveller accordingly without delay, at the latest, however, 21 days before commencement of the holiday. Price increases after this period are not permissible. In the case of price increases of more than 5% or in the case of a considerable amendment to an essential travel service, the traveller is entitled to withdraw from the tourist travel contract free of charge or to demand to take a holiday which is at least of the same value, if the tour operator is in a position to offer such a holiday from its range of holidays at no extra cost for the traveller. The customer must assert these rights without delay against SCC after the latter's declaration of the price increase or of the amendment of the travel service.

5. Cancellation, Changing Reservations, Substitute Persons

5.1. You may cancel your trip in writing at any time prior to commencement of travel. Your cancellation notice shall become effective on the date we receive it. If we receive your notice out of office hours (Monday to Friday 9-17h CET), your notice shall become effective on the next working day (except Saturday).

5.2. If one of the parties cancels the contract or if you do not start the journey, SCC may demand reasonable compensation for arrangements it has made in conjunction with the trip and for its expenses, even if SCC has not yet confirmed the trip or if you fail to begin the journey. Our flat rate claim to reimbursement consists of a processing fee of EUR 25 per person for cancellation of a reserved trip up to 150 days prior to commencement of travel. The following annulment fees shall arise in the event of later cancellation:

- 25% of the tour price for cancellation 149 – 50 days prior to commencement of travel;
- 35% of the tour price for cancellation 49 – 22 days prior to commencement of travel;
- 55% of the tour price for cancellation 21 – 15 days prior to commencement of travel;
- 80% of the tour price for cancellation 14 days or less prior to commencement of travel;
- 90% of the tour price for cancellation on the same day as the commencement of travel or failure to appear.

Costs that the service provider charges to SCC, e.g., empty bed fee charged by a hotel for cancellation at short notice or special fees for cruises, shall be additionally invoiced in the event that individual or group trips are annulled.

The traveller is free to prove to SCC that SCC has no loss or that the loss is less than the aforementioned flat rate. In this case the lower proven loss will be applied in place of the flat. SCC reserves the right to charge reimbursement fees beyond the flat rates mentioned above.

In this case SCC has to verify and prove the loss, taking any expenses that have been saved and/or any other potential uses for the travel services into consideration.

5.3. We will endeavour to modify the travel registration (change reservations) subject to availability, at your request, up to 75 days prior to commencement of travel.

Any change of reservations made as of the 74th day prior to commencement of travel will require you to serve notice that you are cancelling the reserved trip, and it will require subsequent re-registration. This shall not apply for requested changes of reservations that solely cause substantiated, minor expenses.

Modification of the travel date, the travel destination, accommodations or the means of transportation shall apply as a change of reservations.

5.4. You may appoint a substitute person for yourself up to commencement of travel. In such case you are required to inform the tour organizer thereof. The tour organizer may object to any such substitute person on the basis of good cause, (e.g., special requirements linked to the trip, statutory bans, refusal by airlines or by hotel operators, etc.). If a third party enters into the contract, then he or she and the registrant are jointly and severally liable in respect of SCC for the price of the holiday and for additional costs incurred through the entry of the third party.

5.5. Cancellation fees and fees for changing reservations are due for immediate payment.

6. Cancellation and Rescission of Agreement by the Tour Organizer

6.1. SCC may rescind the travel agreement after commencement of travel, without complying with a term of notice, if travellers persistently disturb execution of the trip despite an appropriate warning issued by the tour organizer. The same shall apply if anyone should behave in a manner which is gravely in breach of contract and justifies the immediate cancellation. In addition SCC has the right to cancel the travel contract without notice if in the captain's opinion the traveller is unfit for travel due to illness, physical disability or for any other reason or if the traveller requires special assistance but is travelling without this assistance or if the trip has been booked based on incorrect information. SCC shall, however, after cancellation retain its claim to the tour price. The person causing the disturbance is liable for any possible extra cost for return transportation.

However, SCC is required to allow credit for the value of saved costs as well as for advantages which may be obtained from another application of services not used, including possible reimbursements from service providers.

6.2. SCC may rescind the trip up to two weeks prior to commencement of travel due to failure to obtain the minimum number of participants if (a) the minimum number of participants in the brochure is stated as well as the point in time by which the traveller must be informed of the withdrawal prior to the contractually agreed-upon commencement of the travel and (b) the number of minimum participants as well as the latest date of possible cancellation are clearly stated in the travel confirmation or reference is made to the respective travel description where such information is stated. The cancellation notice will be immediately forwarded to you. Your paid tour price will be immediately refunded.

7. Rescission of the Contract due to exceptional Circumstances

7.1. SCC or the traveller may both rescind the travel agreement if the trip is rendered considerably difficult, endangered or impeded due to an Act of Providence, (e.g., war, internal unrest, natural catastrophes). SCC shall immediately refund the paid tour price in such instance.

However, SCC may demand compensation for rendered or outstanding travel performances.

7.2. If a trip is cancelled subsequent to commencement of travel, then the tour organizer is obligated to undertake appropriate measures, and he is especially obligated to provide return transportation for travellers, if possible. The contracting parties shall each bear one half of the costs for return transportation. The traveller will be required to bear all additional expenses.

8. Liability

8.1. We shall bear liability within the scope of the due diligence of a prudent businessman:

8.1.1. for conscientious preparation of the trip;

8.1.2. for careful selection and monitoring of service providers, (e.g., transportation corporations, hotel operators, etc.);

8.1.3. for due and proper rendering of contractually covenanted tour performances, under consideration of applicable legal provisions of the respective country and place of destination.

8.2. However, we are not liable for information contained in hotel and local site brochures. We have no influence on their origin. We also bear no liability if national political conditions and contingent entry regulations change at the point of destination, after this brochure is printed, that encumber entry into the affected country or point of destination or which render the same infeasible. We shall inform you at short notice of any such essential, subsequent changes, in as far as possible.

8.3. We are liable for the fault of a person entrusted with rendering a service, unless otherwise stipulated under these Terms and Conditions of Travel or stipulated by prevailing conditions, and provided that the person entrusted to render service had caused an instance of damage not only upon the occasion of performing contract. The measure of indebted diligence shall be determined by conditions at the site of service rendered. Your tour will primarily take you to foreign countries, where foreign living conditions and where laws, that are partially foreign to us, prevail.

8.4. Scope of liability

SCC is not liable for faulty performances among mediated third party services, provided that expressed reference is made to mediated services in the travel documents and on the travel confirmation. Having stated this requirement, the following provisions shall solely apply for flights for which the traveller receives a corresponding ticket:

SCC, in its capacity as a mediator, is not liable for performance of transportation services, rather the corporate carrier is responsible. SCC is not an air freight carrier. The liability of airline companies is based on their own terms and conditions of transportation, which can be provided by SCC upon request. For all remaining purposes, airlines' liability is restricted by international conventions and regulations, e.g., by the Warsaw Convention and EU Directive No. 295/91 dated February 4, 1991. We will send these to you upon request. Liability for damages caused by delay is excluded.

8.5. Warranty

8.5.1. The traveller may demand relief if the tour is not performed in compliance with contract. SCC may refuse relief if it necessitates disproportionate expense.

8.5.2. After returning from the tour, the traveller may demand reduction of the tour price, commensurate with reduced performance, in the event that the demand for relief was unsuccessful and the trip was not performed in compliance with contract. This shall not affect contingent, more extensive claims for subsequent reduction of the tour price.

8.5.3. The traveller may rescind the travel agreement if the tour organizer failed to perform relief, within a reasonable term, or if the tour organizer formally states that relief cannot be performed, and if the trip will be considerably impaired due to performance of services under noncompliance with contract. If the agreement is rescinded in this manner, then SCC is obligated to take appropriate measures, and especially to provide return transportation for travellers, if required.

8.6. The traveller may demand compensation for damages, and more precisely for vacation time spent to no avail, provided that the tour organizer is liable for a circumstance that caused a flaw in the tour.

8.7. Restriction of liability

8.7.1. The tour operator's contractual liability is limited to three times the tour price, provided that damages sustained by the traveller are not caused by intent or gross negligence. The same applies in as far as the tour organizer is responsible for damages incurred by a traveller solely through the fault of a service provider.

8.7.2. The tour organizer is not liable for defective performances that arise in conjunction with services mediated as third party performances, (e.g., sporting events, attendance at theatres, exhibitions, etc.), and which are expressly identified as third party performances in the brochure.

8.7.3. A claim to damage against the tour organizer is restricted or excluded, if – under legal provisions applicable to required, rendered performances of a service provider – a claim for damage against a service provider may solely be asserted under certain conditions or limitations or if such claim is excluded under certain conditions.

8.7.4. If the tour organizer assumes a position equivalent to a freight carrier, then his liability shall be regulated by the provisions of the Air Transportation Act in conjunction with conventions covenanted in Warsaw, The Hague, Guadalajara and the Montreal Agreement (solely for flights to Canada and the USA). As a rule, the Warsaw Convention limits the freight carrier's liability for death or physical injury and for loss and damage of luggage. If the tour organizer constitutes a service provider, in other instances, then he shall bear liability in accordance with provisions that apply for a service provider.

8.7.5. If the tour organizer assumes a position equivalent to a carrier, within the scope of sea voyages, then his liability shall be regulated in compliance with provisions of the Commercial Code and the Inland Waterways Transportation Act.

8.8. Duty to cooperate, complaints

8.8.1. In the event of defective performance, each traveller is required to undertake whatever may be reasonably expected of him/her to contribute to alleviate the defect and to keep any potential damages to a minimum.

8.8.2. If you should have reason for complaints, contrary to our expectations, then immediately inform our tour management on site. If a respective local tour manager or tour agent is not available or cannot be reached, or if they cannot alleviate a defective performance, then please turn to the service provider (transfer company, hotel operator) and/or the tour organizer or to his contact address in the area of destination. A traveller is not entitled to claims if he/she culpably fails to perform the above obligations.

8.8.3. Tour guides are not authorized to formally recognize any claims whatsoever.

9. Exclusion of Claims and Statute of Limitation

9.1. Your claims are to be asserted within one month following the contractually covenanted date of return. Claims are to be stated in writing and forwarded to SEA CLOUD CRUISES GmbH, An der Alster 9, 20099 Hamburg, Germany. You may only assert claims after expiration of the above term, if you were hindered from complying with the deadline through no fault of your own.

9.2. All claims arising from the travel agreement shall lapse one year following the contractually covenanted date of return.

9.3. Claims for damages due to prohibited actions shall lapse in two years.

9.4. The statute of limitations is suspended if the tour organizer initially states to you that complaints and claims are being examined. The suspension is lifted when the tour organizer informs the customer of the results of his examination with regard to the customer's claims.

10. Insurance Coverage
