Sail the iconic rivers of Europe in style

The rivers of Europe have long been the lifeblood of the communities that call the riverbanks home. As they weave their way through the continent, they connect cities and landscapes with an allure simply unachievable by other modes of travel.

Our collection of itineraries along the Rhine, Main, Danube, Moselle, Rhône, Saône and Douro, offer an insight into the history, culture and tradition of each magnificent waterway, during thoughtfully crafted adventures designed by our expert journey planners. What were once integral trade routes are now gateways to cultural enlightenment, to be navigated in style on board an Emerald Waterways Star-Ship.

Rhône River

Beginning its journey in the Swiss Alps, the Rhône flows through the heart of France's gastronomic center towards the Mediterranean Sea.

- More than 6,000 wine-growing properties in the Rhône Valley produce, distribute and export world-class wines worldwide.
- The capital of the Auvergne-Rhône-Alpes region, Lyon excels at every level. A UNESCO World Heritage-listed site, excellent cuisine, fine wine and iconic architecture adorn the water's banks, as it curves elegantly through the center.

Saône River

The river is an eastern tributary of the Rhône. It flows through Burgundy before meeting the Rhône at Lyon.

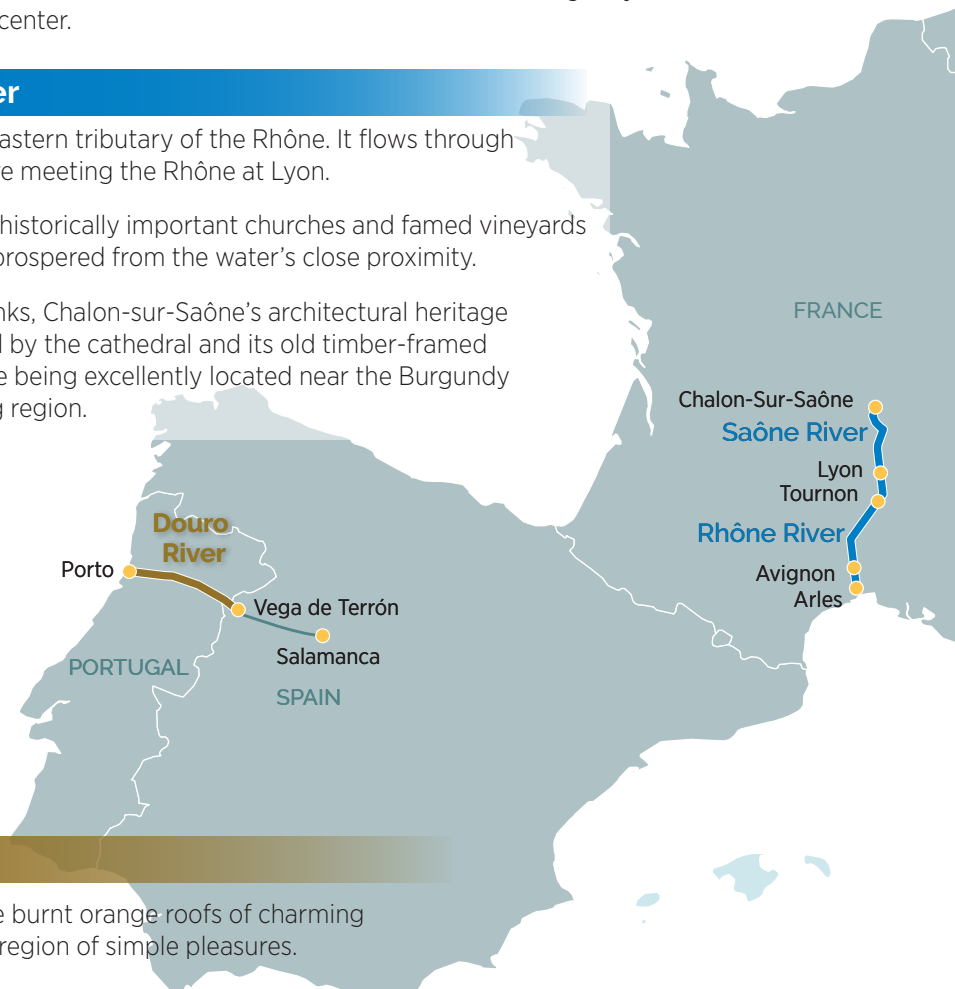

- You'll notice historically important churches and famed vineyards which have prospered from the water's close proximity.
- Along its banks, Chalon-sur-Saône's architectural heritage is dominated by the cathedral and its old timber-framed houses, while being excellently located near the Burgundy wine-making region.

Douro River

Flanked by vineyards, traditional wineries and the burnt orange roofs of charming villages, Portugal's Douro winds through a rustic region of simple pleasures.

- In 1756, the Douro Valley became the first defined wine-producing region in the world.
- The town of Régua played a huge role in the production and sale of Port wine, so it would only be right to visit a traditional 'quinta' to see where it all begins.

Rhine River

Flowing from the Alps to the North Sea, the Rhine River has long been a major trade route and is considered pivotal in the industrialization of Europe.

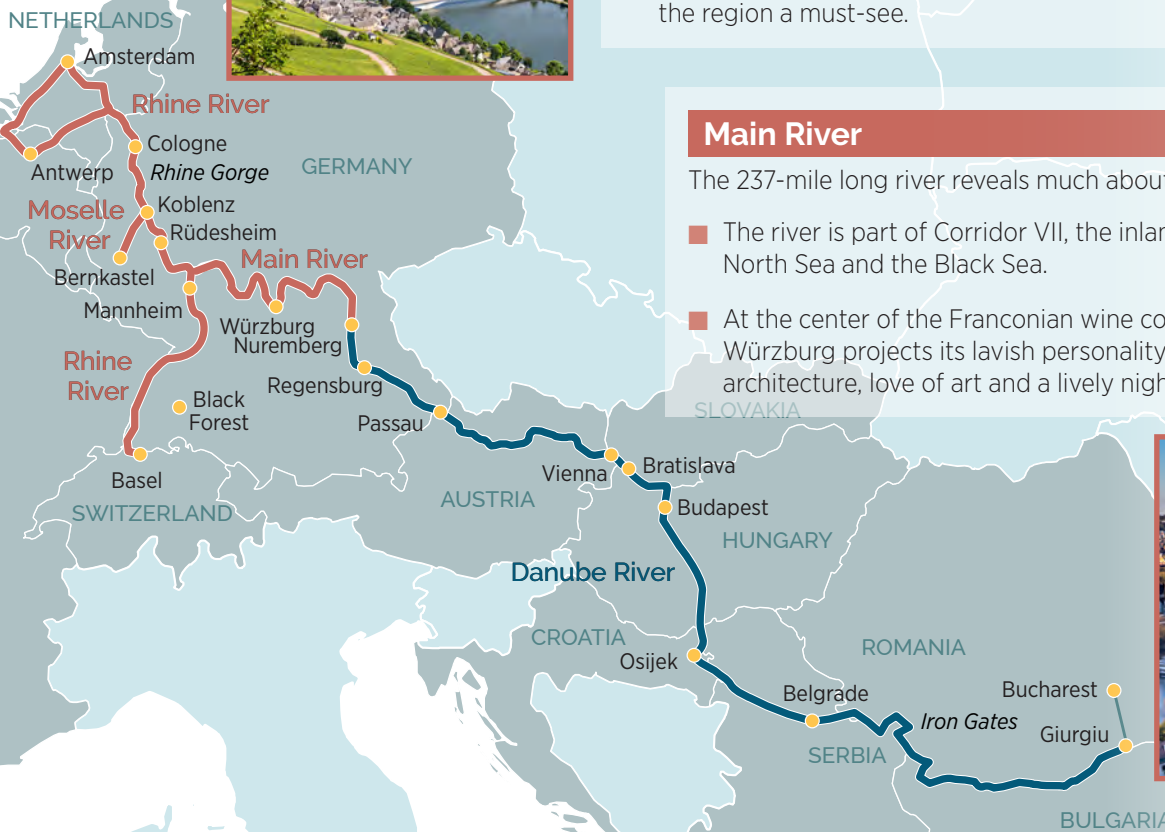

- The source of the Rhine is in Switzerland's Lake Toma, situated 7,600 feet above sea level.
- The UNESCO World Heritage-listed Rhine Gorge is a 65-kilometre river valley stretching between Koblenz and Bingen in Germany. Exemplifying Mother Nature's spectacular feats, vineyards and fairytale castles dot the green landscape.

Moselle River

As it flows through France and Germany, castles tower over wine villages where some of the best Rieslings grow.

- It is believed that the Romans planted the first vineyards along the river.
- Along the Moselle Valley, you'll spot terraced vineyards as they rise up from the water's edge. Fairytale castles and picturesque villages make the region a must-see.

Main River

The 237-mile long river reveals much about the history of the continent.

- The river is part of Corridor VII, the inland waterway link between the North Sea and the Black Sea.
- At the center of the Franconian wine country, the Bavarian city of Würzburg projects its lavish personality through its spectacular architecture, love of art and a lively nightlife.

Danube River

Europe's second-longest river flows through 10 countries, more than any other in the world, including four capital cities, Budapest, Vienna, Bratislava and Belgrade.

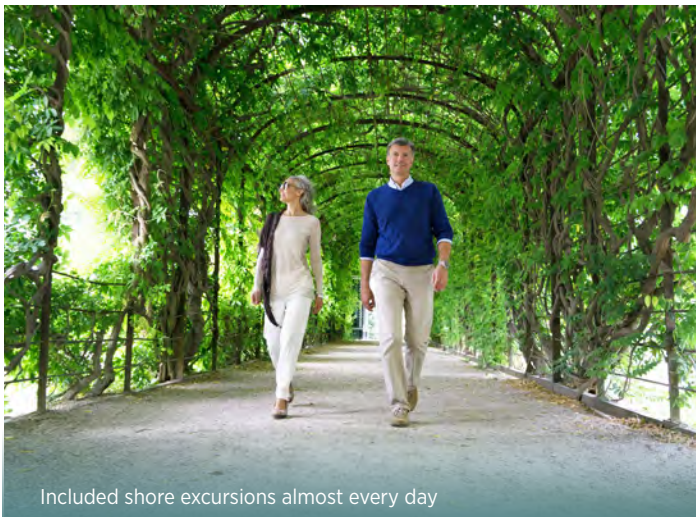

- The Danube's enormous volume of water makes it one of Central Europe's most vital sources for fresh drinking water.
- Surrounded by the Little Carpathian mountains, the Slovakian capital of Bratislava stretches along both banks of the river and is often referred to as the 'Beauty on the Danube'.

Danube River

The international river

Having been the muse for decades of artistic legacy, the majesty of the Danube is no myth. Winding through ten of Europe's most breathtaking countries including four capital cities, Vienna, Budapest, Belgrade and Bratislava, all of which are must-see pit stops.

From Germany's Black Forest, stretching 1,785 miles east towards the Danube Delta and into the Black Sea, this inspirational waterway has seen communities, dating as far back as the Neolithic Age, settle along its banks.

Centuries of historical intrigue are detailed upon visits to imposing fortresses, beautifully preserved palaces and ancient castles, as well as vibrant cities and peaceful riverbank villages. Step back in time and walk in the footsteps of the former residents who have helped shape the culture.

Whether you're sailing on board the Emerald Star, Sky, Dawn, Sun or Destiny, you will be treated to stylish staterooms and suites, an indoor heated pool, cinema and Sun Deck, to name just a few of the ships' innovative features.

Great for
enthusiasts

The past is memorialized at every stop along the Danube, as some of Europe's most exquisite monuments prove they've been built to stand the test of time. Architecture enthusiasts will be in awe of each city's diversity, from the blend of Gothic and Renaissance Revival showcased by Budapest's Parliament Building, to the New Baroque of Vienna's Burgtheater.

What a fabulous surprise!

“We chose this cruise specifically for two of the destinations, but we were blown away by some of the cities we hadn’t even heard of. We loved Bratislava, Melk, Dürnstein, Passau and Regensburg. The architecture in every city was astounding.”

Mel Roper.

Passau

In southeast Germany on the border of Austria, Passau is located at the confluence of the Danube, Ilz and Inn rivers. Aptly nicknamed the ‘Three Rivers City’, it is overlooked by the spectacular 13th century Veste Oberhaus, home to a museum, youth hostel and restaurant, as well as an open-air theater since 1934. The Old Town is recognized for its beautiful Baroque architecture, namely St. Stephen’s Cathedral with its onion-domed towers and an organ boasting over 17,000 pipes.

Vienna

Renowned for its coffee shop culture and cozy wine taverns, the Austrian capital has made a name for itself as the home of many a renowned composer. Strauss, Mozart and Beethoven, as well as symbolist painter Gustav Klimt and the ‘father of psychoanalysis’ Sigmund Freud, have all fallen for its charm. Meander the streets, lined with stunning Baroque buildings and monuments of an Imperial past, now coexisting with the contemporary for a truly unique skyline.

Budapest

Formerly two separate cities, divided by the Danube, Buda on the west and Pest on the east certainly possess their own personalities. Buda’s narrow, winding streets and steep hills are home to the beautiful former Hapsburg Palace and views from the Fisherman’s Bastion unveil the magnificent Parliament Building. A walk over the iconic Chain Bridge to Pest presents a mixture of bustling bars, cafés and restaurants, as well as thermal spas, all of which are the place to be.

Danube & Rhine River

An iconic glass-top canal boat cruise in Amsterdam marks the beginning of this wonderful itinerary through the Netherlands, Germany, Austria, Slovakia and Hungary. Promising natural beauty, medieval towns and hikes to hilltop fortresses, four capital cities offer a unique insight into the region's past, present and future.

Rhine, Main & Moselle Rivers

The legendary rivers

A mighty river by anyone's standards, the Rhine flows through six countries and has served as a link between the north and south of Europe since Roman Times. The Main River is considered one of its major tributaries, while the 'romantic' Moselle meets it in Koblenz.

Starting its life in the Swiss Alps, this exceptional waterway is the lifeblood of Basel, where it has long been a major transportation route. Functioning as a border between the fairytale-like landscapes of western Germany and France's Alsace, it meanders through steep vine-clad hillsides, past age-old castles and medieval towns, until it reaches the Netherlands, ending its journey in the North Sea.

Reaching over 760 miles, this magical waterway inevitably picks up a number of major cities along the way. Cosmopolitan, quirky and enigmatic Amsterdam is the first stop on many of our Rhine, Main and Moselle river cruise itineraries, while Basel, Strasbourg and Cologne, all call its banks home. Founded as trading posts, they have since flourished into the major cities they are today.

Experience some of the oldest and most fascinating cities as you sail through the 'heart of Europe' where rich history, inimitable landscapes and proud cultures have thrived for years, and will continue to do so for many more.

Great for
buffs

As you journey to some of Europe's oldest settlements, stories of former monarchs, legends of wicked rock formations and vineyards that have been producing some of the continent's best wines for centuries, come to life. Museums pay homage to decades of culture and the modern world respects its elder counterparts. It is the perfect route for history buffs, whether architecture, art, music or science is your passion.

We were very impressed!

“I had cruised the Rhine before but this was my first with Emerald Waterways. The crew always went the extra mile. The food was excellent, as was the service and entertainment. The ship also had a pool with a relaxing area to sit and converse with friends.”

Amsterdam

The Dutch capital may be small, but it certainly packs a lot of personality. Recognized for its artistic heritage and postcard-worthy narrow terraced houses with gabled facades - a nod to the Golden Age - the romantic cobbled streets and winding canal system reminds you of a simpler time. An eclectic museum district attracts fans of anything from history and art, to science and culture, while visits to cozy coffee shops, unique bars and excellent restaurants can be navigated easily by bicycle or along the central waterways, just as a local would.

Rüdesheim

In Germany's Rhine region, the quaint town of Rüdesheim is surrounded by soaring hills covered in Riesling producing vineyards. Ancient fortresses and monuments to the country's past speckle the dramatic landscape, beneath which snug wine bars and garden taverns offer cups of Rüdesheimer coffee or glasses of regional wine. A visit to Siegfried's Mechanical Musical Instrument Museum showcases three centuries of musical instruments, from self-playing music boxes to a gigantic piano-orchestration.

Koblenz

At over 2,000 years old, Koblenz is one of Germany's oldest cities. With much cultural diversity to explore, museums that celebrate everything from 20th century French art to archaeology embellish the winding streets. Ancient history is brought to life 400 feet above the Rhine river, at the spectacular Ehrenbreitstein Fortress, via the contrastingly modern Koblenz cable car. The second-largest preserved fortress in Europe, it dates back to the year 1000 and is now home to the Landesmuseum Koblenz, the Ehrenmal des Heeres army monument and the Koblenz youth hostel.

Explore modern and quintessential Holland on a glass-top canal boat cruise, before sailing the countryside witnessing windmills and tulip fields. Lyon Widely considered the world's gastronomic capital, since 2014 Lyon has risen to rival Nice and Strasbourg as France's second city. Fine restaurants promise exquisite food, while local bouchons showcase authentic dishes in cozy quarters and tea rooms and coffee shops satisfy the sweet tooth. The newly excavated remains of the Roman city of Lugdunum, with its amphitheater, evokes memories of former rule and, the iconic white stone of the Basilica of Notre-Dame de Fourvière shimmers in all its neo-Byzantine glory, offering some of the best views of the city.

Avignon

In France's stunning Provençal region on the left bank of the Rhône River, Avignon is brimming with history and beauty. At the city's heart, the Place de l'Horloge boasts the 19th century city hall and the municipal theatre, and is a common meeting place for locals. The equally as impressive Place du Palais encompasses three of the city's main attractions. The Palais-des-Papes, the largest Gothic palace in the world, the Hotel des Monnaies, with its wonderful façade, and the Rocher des Doms, providing unrivaled views of the river and Le Pont D'Avignon.

Arles

Arles was once the Provincial capital of Ancient Rome, reminders of which remain in the form of the amphitheater, built in 90 AD. Now a UNESCO World Heritage-listed site, it was originally built to hold 20,000 as the setting for centuries of battles, chariot races and performances. Unsurprisingly, the city has been known to inspire artists, such as Van Gogh, who chose the city as his home for a productive year, during which he created much, inspired by the various locations his curiosity was drawn to.

Rhône & Saône Rivers

It is no surprise that the South of France is recognized as the birthplace of photography, its unrivaled beauty comprises the finest examples of French 15th century architecture, with Roman ruins and sun-soaked vineyards nestled at the foot of colossal mountain ranges. Journey to the country's gastronomic heartbeat, Lyon, before enjoying an authentic Provençal dinner on board, hosted by renowned French chef, Fabien Morreale.

WATER LEVELS

Cruise itineraries may be varied due to high or low water levels, flooding, lock closures, unscheduled vessel maintenance or for any other circumstances beyond our control. If we're unable to continue sailing certain rivers due to water level problems, we'll do everything we can to minimize the impact it has on your vacation and make alternative arrangements for the rest of the itinerary. This could mean arranging coach transfers, organizing ship swaps, providing hotel accommodation or finding alternative attractions to visit - all of which are weather-dependent.

SUN DECK

The Sun Deck operational hours may be limited due to the passage through low-bridge areas or other restrictions by local authorities. This may mean that the deck is completely closed for a period of sailing time on certain rivers.

DOUBLE DOCKING

In popular ports we will on occasion be required to dock next to other ships, which may mean accessing the shore via the Sun Deck, requiring you to ascend and descend stairs. This will not prevent you leaving the ship or your ability to get on and off.

PASSPORTS

All guests are required to possess a passport valid for 6 months beyond the conclusion of their trip.

VISA INFORMATION

U.S. passport holders do not require a visa for European cruises. Regardless of nationality, it is your responsibility to ensure any visas required for the countries you'll be visiting during the cruise have been obtained.

HEALTH AND VACCINATIONS

Health facilities, hygiene and disease risks vary worldwide. To ensure your safety throughout your cruise, seek advice regarding your specific health requirements as early as possible. If you have any pre-existing medical conditions or mobility difficulties, you should inform us at the time of booking.

FLIGHTS

Flights may be indirect due to routes and airline schedules.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

We strongly advise you to take out adequate and appropriate travel insurance, which includes cover against loss of deposit or cancellation fees. Please read your policy details carefully and take them with you on your cruise. It's your responsibility to ensure that the coverage you purchase is suitable and adequate for your needs and the cost of your vacation.

MOBILITY

Emerald Waterways welcomes disabled guests but wishes all guests to understand that limitations could exist onboard and during shore excursions. The elevators on our ships service three out of four decks, with access to the Sun Deck only possible using stairs. Under appropriate circumstances guests are welcome to use collapsible wheelchairs onboard. Many tours are conducted from coaches, so guests need to be able to climb up and down the stairs to board. Some shore excursions may require movement over cobblestones or up and down stairs; accordingly, guests with limited mobility will require the services of a responsible companion to be traveling with them, since crew availability is limited. If you have any medical, physical or other special needs, please contact our travel advisors for further information and have a look at our deck plans to gain an understanding of the layout of any particular ship.

COACH TRAVEL

To experience the full range of regional attractions during our itineraries, there will be a certain amount of coach travel required.

DiscoverMORE OPTIONAL TOURS

During your cruise, you can book a range of optional activities for a number of destinations onboard the ship. DiscoverMORE optional tours are at an additional cost, subject to availability and seasonal operations, and may be subject to minimum/maximum numbers.

EmeraldACTIVE BICYCLES & TOURS

Availability of bicycles and EmeraldACTIVE tours on bicycles is limited to the number of bicycles available on each Star-Ship.

ONBOARD CURRENCY

Onboard your ship, any accounts can be paid in cash in euros or by credit or debit card.

CLOTHING

We recommend casual and comfortable clothing; for sightseeing and walking tours you'll need comfortable shoes. For the winter months, you'll need a warm coat, gloves and water-resistant footwear. Dinner is an informal affair; relaxed evening wear is perfect. On certain evenings such as the Welcome and Farewell Dinners, you might like to dress up.

WI-FI

Wi-Fi connection availability and speed will vary depending on where the ship is positioned and the number of users. Wi-Fi can be slow to use and there may be occasions when no signal is available. Guests staying in an Owner's One-Bedroom Suite will have complimentary use of an iPad throughout the cruise.

ELECTRICITY AND VOLTAGE

Onboard electricity is 220v and a European plug adaptor will be needed to use electrical items. All rooms have a hairdryer.

Emerald Waterways is a brand owned and operated by Scenic Tours (USA), Inc. Any reference herein to "Emerald" refers to Scenic Tours (USA), Inc. By booking a tour, cruise or other vacation package with Emerald and paying the booking deposit, you are agreeing to these terms and conditions, which creates a binding contract between Emerald and you, the customer. Please read this contract carefully, as it contains important terms and conditions including, without limitation, penalties for cancellation and specific limitations on our liability.

1. General. Emerald operates tours within the United States, and serves as a booking agent for tours operated by third-party service providers ("Providers") in other countries. Emerald reserves the right to provide the tour or any portion thereof either directly through its own personnel or through third party service providers. You hereby acknowledge and agree that where any tour or part of the tour, accommodations, flights or any other goods or services are provided by a third party (collectively, "Third Party Services") and not directly by Emerald Waterways, Emerald is not liable for any dispute or claim with respect to or arising from any Third Party Services including, without limitation, any losses, damages, breach of contract, negligence or other claims or damages arising from the acts or omissions of the Providers thereof and, therefore, you are required to pursue any such claims solely against the relevant Provider.

2. Important Travel Information. You acknowledge and agree that there are general risks associated with traveling, which are beyond Emerald's control and, as such, Emerald is not liable for any loss, cost or damage you may incur as a result thereof. Such general risks include, but are not limited to, tour variations or interruptions caused by road, river or weather conditions; national or local holidays affecting the closure of public buildings and attractions; strikes, civil disturbances and advisories by governments, and other Force Majeure Events (as defined below); hazards associated with traveling in undeveloped areas; travel by boat, train, automobile, aircraft and other means of transportation; high winds; heavy fog; high water levels; low water levels; flooding; lock closures; unscheduled vessel or vehicle maintenance or for any other circumstances beyond Emerald's control; forces of nature; illness; flight schedule changes or cancellations; loss of luggage; epidemics or pandemics; political unrest; accidents; acts of terrorism or other criminal acts; and any changes to government visa or travel requirements. Furthermore, it is your sole responsibility to make your own inquiries regarding your trip, including any relevant government travel safety warnings.

3. Travel Insurance. You are urged to arrange comprehensive travel insurance to cover any unforeseen circumstances that may occur during the tour. Emerald is not liable in any regard for your failure to adequately insure yourself, and you agree to indemnify and hold Emerald harmless for any expenses or delays incurred as a result of your failure to adequately insure yourself. For your convenience, Emerald offers its clients the opportunity to purchase travel protection through TripMate, Inc. We act as a broker. Once purchased, the Travel Protection Plan premium is non-refundable.

4. Tour Price. The "Tour Price" is the total amount listed on your itinerary. All Tour Prices are quoted in U.S. Dollars. Emerald reserves the right to vary Tour Prices at any time, in its absolute discretion, to account for any increase in costs, including but not limited to airfares, fuel, government taxes and charges, exchange rate fluctuations or other tour related costs or tariffs. If Emerald has received the full amount of the Tour Price from you, there will be no increases to your Tour Price, regardless of any increases in the tour costs inside or outside of our control. If you have not paid the full amount of the Tour Price, and we must vary your Tour Price due to an increase in tour costs outside of Emerald's control, any increase Emerald applies to the Tour Price will be only to the extent required to meet such additional costs. Emerald reserves the right not to honor any published prices that Emerald determines were erroneous due to printing, electronic or clerical error.

All airfares quoted at the time of your booking, will be based on round trip purchase and will include air-related taxes, fees and fuel surcharges imposed by the airlines. Any additional fees charged by the airlines such as checked baggage fees, seat selections and/or any other services are your sole responsibility. Cancellations. The cancellation fees listed above do not include any cancellation fees that may be imposed by the airlines. In cases when paper tickets are issued, no refund will be made for canceled air tickets until tickets are returned to Emerald. Non-refundable tickets cannot be refunded under any condition. Please ensure that any returned airline tickets are sent by certified or registered mail. Lost ticket replacement can take up to one year and processing fees may be assessed.

10. Tour Variations, Delays, Etc. Itinerary Variations. While Emerald will make reasonable efforts to operate the tour in accordance with your itinerary, changes or substitutions may be necessary for reasons outside Emerald's control or other Force Majeure Events (as defined in paragraph 12). At certain peak periods duplicate departures may operate, and sometimes in reverse order; hotels may also vary from those stated on the itinerary pages. On tours that include cruises, the ship may be changed due to operational reasons. Departures in early and late season are potentially operated in cool weather conditions. As a result, slight itinerary variations may occur, and certain activities may not be available due to seasonality or weather conditions. Availability of certain activities may also be limited due to itinerary variations. If your tour enjoyment may be diminished by such limitations, please check with your Travel Agent before making your reservation. Emerald reserves the right to substitute (at the nearest reasonable standard) another vessel or motorcoach for all or part of the itinerary and also provide alternative accommodation, where necessary or advisable. Your travel experience in a substituted vessel or motorcoach may materially differ from your original accommodations. River conditions (including repair or maintenance work on canal or river banks, bridges, lock or docks) may provide Emerald with short notice of necessary or advisable changes to your itinerary. Emerald is not liable to you for any variations in the tour itinerary caused by Force Majeure Events or the events described in Section 2. Tour Cancellation. Your booking is conditional on Emerald receiving a minimum number of bookings to operate the tour and ensure an enjoyable group atmosphere. Where sufficient numbers, as determined by Emerald in its sole discretion, are not achieved, Emerald may cancel or suspend a scheduled departure of the tour. Emerald will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide notice of canceled or suspended tours at least 60 days prior to the scheduled departure date. Emerald will endeavor to notify you of any changes to your tour itinerary in the following manner: (a) if prior to your tour departure, by telephone, email or mail; and (b) if during your tour, personally by your Cruise Director or Tour Director. In the event a tour or cruise is canceled by Emerald for any reason prior to departure, Emerald will use commercially reasonable efforts to offer the closest available tour or cruise departure. If the replacement tour price is less than the scheduled tour, you will receive a refund in the amount of the difference or if the replacement tour is more than the scheduled tour you will be required to pay the difference. If you accept the alternative tour or cruise departure, you will be bound by these Terms and Conditions with respect to the alternative tour or cruise. If you do not accept the alternative tour or cruise departure within a period of 7 days, then this Contract will be terminated and Emerald will refund all monies that you paid directly to Emerald and Emerald will have no further liability to you. Emerald will not be liable for any third party costs you incur as a result of cancellation, including without limitation, for airfares or other arrangements booked independently through or paid to a travel agent or other third party. Tour Delay. Where Emerald delays the departure of a tour or cruise, for whatever reason, for more than 7 days, as your sole and exclusive remedy you may terminate this Contract and Emerald will either: (a) provide you with a full refund of all amounts paid to Emerald; or (b) provide you with a credit towards future tours with Emerald which will be valid for 24 months from the date you notify us of the termination of this Contract.

11. General Notices, Conditions and Safety Matters. Sun Deck. Operation hours may be limited due to the passage of low bridges or other restrictions by local authorities. Noise, Vibration and Odor. While Emerald takes reasonable steps to minimize noise, vibration and odors on the cruise ships, you acknowledge and accept that some noise, vibration and intermittent odors may be experienced on vessels and that Emerald will not be liable to you in relation to any such noise, vibration or odors. Young Passengers. Children under 12 years old are ineligible to participate in our tours, except for applicable Christmas tours and cruises, and then only if accepted by Emerald in its sole discretion. Due to the availability of alcohol on many of our vacation packages, children and other persons under 21 years of age must be accompanied by a person over the age of 21 (an "Adult") and must share their accommodation with that Adult. Bus Safety. You acknowledge and agree that if you travel on a bus or motorcoach as a part of a tour, you are required to comply with any and all recommended safety requirements including, without limitation, remaining seated at all times while in the bus or motorcoach and wearing a safety belt while seated in the motorcoach. Neither Emerald nor its affiliates or Providers shall have any liability to you or any third party for any injuries, illness or death resulting from your failure to adhere to applicable safety recommendations. Physically Challenged Guests. Emerald strives to provide a safe, enjoyable and memorable travel experience for all passengers. Sightseeing in many historic towns and cities can only be undertaken by walking tours of up to 5 km (3.2 miles), often on uneven surfaces. Some tours include mountain excursions involving high altitudes. Consequently, a reasonably adequate (and sometimes high) level of fitness is required for many of our tours. Please consult with your doctor to ensure that you have an adequate level of fitness and are in good health before participating in these included excursions. Emerald will not provide any refunds if you are not able to participate in any portion of the tour. Most transportation services are not equipped with elevators or wheelchair ramps, and cabin doors and rest rooms may not be wide enough to provide access for standard wheelchairs. Emerald will make reasonable attempts to accommodate the special needs of its physically challenged guests, but is not responsible in the event it is unable to do so. Nor is it responsible for any denial of service by vessel operators, air carriers, hotels, restaurants or other Providers. We regret that we cannot provide individual assistance to our customers for walking, dining, getting on and off vessels, motorcoaches and other vehicles, or for other personal needs. A qualified and physically able companion must accompany travelers who need assistance and must assume full responsibility for their well being. Please note that motorized scooters are not suitable on international tours, and are may not be permitted in certain countries. Safety. Passengers must follow Tour/Cruise Director and crew instructions at all times to ensure on tour safety. You acknowledge that failure to do so will result in restricted access to areas on tour, or if necessary for your own safety and that of other passengers, withdrawal from the tour. If Emerald, or our staff or Providers are of the view you are negatively affecting your own health, safety or enjoyment, or that of other passengers, Emerald may terminate your continued participation in the tour immediately and in such event, Emerald will not be liable to you for any loss, cost or damage resulting from your withdrawal from the tour. If you are withdrawn from the tour, you must make your own travel arrangements at your own expense. You hereby acknowledge and agree that neither Emerald, nor any of its affiliates or Providers, are responsible for any damages, costs or expenses that may arise from the decision to exclude an individual from participating on all or any portion of an Emerald tour, or from any activities or accommodations on an Emerald tour. Passport/Visas. You must have a passport valid for six months past the expected end date of your tour. It is also your responsibility to obtain valid entry visas for all countries where so required, prior to departure. Failure to obtain correct documentation may affect your participation in all or any portion of the tour. Emerald will not provide any refunds if you are not able to participate in the tour, or any part thereof. You will be responsible for any costs you incur as a result of your failure to obtain the required documentation including, without limitation, any costs associated with rejoining the tour or returning home. Vaccinations. Immunization requirements vary from country to country. Please consult your personal physician, a local public health board or the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) in Atlanta (404-322-4559 or www.cdc.gov/travel). Required inoculations, if Booking conditions any, must be recorded by traveler's health practitioner on a valid vaccination certificate which the traveler must carry for proof of inoculation where required. Smoking. You acknowledge that vessels, motorcoaches and other vehicles, restaurants, hotels and other accommodations do not permit smoking. Although Emerald may attempt to provide opportunities for smoking during the tour, Emerald does not guarantee such opportunities will be available.

12. Force Majeure. For the purposes of these terms and conditions, a "Force Majeure Event" means any act of God; war; terrorism; fire; flood or any other extreme weather condition; loss of power; epidemics or pandemics; industrial disputes, slow-downs or other strike activities; riots or civil disturbances; acts of government, semi-government or other authorities; inability to obtain any necessary license or consent; delays caused by sub-contractors, suppliers or other third parties (including telecommunications carriers); material shortages; or other any other disruption, delay, damage or loss resulting from any action, omission or event outside the reasonable control of Emerald. You hereby acknowledge and agree that Emerald is not liable for any delay or any failure by Emerald to perform its obligations under these Terms and Conditions resulting from or as a consequence of a Force Majeure Event. If a delay or failure occurs or is anticipated due to Force Majeure Event, Emerald's obligations are suspended for the duration of the Force Majeure Event. Emerald may immediately terminate this agreement, if the Force Majeure Event delays performance for a period of 7 days or more, calculated from the date Emerald notifies you of the Force Majeure Event.

13. Waivers; Limitations of Liability; Disclaimers; Indemnification Waiver of Responsibility.

Without intending to limit the generality of the other limitations and disclaimers set forth herein, you hereby acknowledge and agree that Emerald accepts no responsibility and will not be liable to you or any third party for any loss, cost or damage (including loss of enjoyment) suffered directly or indirectly in connection with: (1) any tour risks or other aspects of the tour of which you were notified in these Terms and Conditions; (2) any change to your itinerary or delays in departure or arrival times of aircraft or otherwise during the conduct of the tour; (3) any loss or damage to your baggage; (4) any personal injury or death resulting from acts or omissions, including negligence, of any third parties providing goods or services to you during the tour, including air carriers, hotels, shore excursion operators, restaurateurs, transportation providers and medical personnel; and (5) any loss of enjoyment by you due to circumstances outlined in these Terms and Conditions or otherwise beyond Emerald's control. You further acknowledge and agree that, in issuing tickets and coupons for transportation of the customer by any means and making arrangements for hotel or other accommodation, Emerald is not acting as principal but only as agent for the companies, corporations or persons providing or offering the means of transportation and accommodation and, therefore, accepts no responsibility for their acts or omissions. Limitation of Indirect and Consequential Damages. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, neither Emerald nor its providers or suppliers shall be liable to you or any third party for any special, incidental, indirect and/or consequential damages of any kind, resulting from their performance or failure to perform pursuant to the terms of this contract or any other documentation entered into in connection herewith, or resulting from the furnishing, performance or use of any of Emerald's products or services, even if you have been advised of the possibility of such damages. Exclusive Remedy; Limitation of Direct Damages. You hereby acknowledge and agree that your sole remedy in the event of a breach by Emerald of any of its obligations hereunder shall be limited to one of the following remedies, as applicable: (a) in the case of goods, in Emerald's sole discretion, repair or replacement of such damaged or faulty goods with the same or equivalent goods or the reimbursement of the amount you paid for such goods, or (b) in the case of services, in Emerald's sole discretion, supplying the services again or reimbursing the cost you paid for the supply of such services. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, however, in no event will the total aggregate liability of Emerald and its providers and suppliers for any claims, losses or damages whatsoever arising out of this contract exceed the total fees paid by you and actually received by Emerald with respect to the tour or cruise with respect to which the claim arose. The limitations of liability and exclusion of certain damages set forth herein shall apply regardless of the success or effectiveness of other remedies. Disclaimer of Warranties. To the fullest extent permitted by law, and except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, Emerald makes no representations or warranties, and hereby disclaims any other representations or warranties, express or implied, arising by law or otherwise, with regard to any of its products and services, including but not limited to any implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, any implied warranty arising from the course of performance, course of dealing or usage of trade, or any implied warranties pertaining to title. Without limiting the foregoing, Emerald does not warrant that your tour will be without delay, interruption or change. Class Action Waiver. This contract provides for the exclusive resolution of disputes through individual legal action on guest's own behalf instead of through any class action. Even if the applicable law provides otherwise, guest agrees that any arbitration or lawsuit against Emerald whatsoever shall be litigated by guest individually and not as a member of any class action or as part of a class action, and guest expressly agrees to waive any law entitling guest to participate in a class action. If guest's claim is subject to arbitration under paragraph 16 below, the arbitrator shall have no authority to arbitrate claims on a class action basis. Guest agrees that this section shall not be severable under any circumstances from the arbitration clause set forth in paragraph 16 below, and if for any reason this class action waiver is unenforceable as to any particular claim, then and only then such claim shall not be subject to arbitration. Indemnification. In consideration of the services and arrangements provided by Emerald, you, for yourself and for your heirs, personal representatives or assigns, do hereby release, waive, discharge, hold harmless and agree to indemnify Emerald and its owners, officers, directors, agents, contractors, subcontractors and employees from any and all claims, actions, or losses for bodily injury, property damage, wrongful death, loss of services, lost profits, consequential, exemplary, indirect or punitive damages or otherwise which may arise out of or occur during your travel in connection with your vacation package and any activities conducted in conjunction therewith. Acknowledgment of Waiver of Rights. Regardless of the situation or circumstances giving rise to a claim, you are hereby waiving rights and remedies that you may otherwise have under applicable law if you did not enter into and agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions including, without limitation, limitation of remedies, waiver of warranties and limitations on your right to seek damages against Emerald and certain third parties. In consideration of participating in my vacation package, my signature on my journey application indicates that I have, on the date shown, read and understood this document and I acknowledge that it affects my legal rights and agree to be bound by its terms. My signature also signifies my intention to relieve and indemnify Emerald, its owners, officers, directors, employees, agents, contractors and subcontractors from any liability for personal injury, property damage or wrongful death which I might suffer during my participation in the scheduled vacation package. Survival. This Paragraph 13 shall survive any termination of the Contract.
