RIVER CRUISING

A better way to explore

Nothing compares to a river.

How else but on a river can you journey into the very heart of the world's greatest cities and most charming towns, discovering the true nature of the land and its people?

Where else but on a river could you be gently carried along on an elegant, intimate ship, docking in the center of town, strolling off to begin your exploration?

How else but on a river would you travel with such ease, unpacking just once and enjoying the ever-changing scenery?

Comfortable and convenient, river cruising offers you the opportunity to go beyond the cities and see quaint riverside towns, breathtaking landscapes and wide-open skies. And because the rivers offer smooth sailing, there is no motion sickness. Small wonder so many people have fallen in love with this engaging, immersive and thoroughly enjoyable form of travel.

When you think about your next voyage, what do you see? A charming European sidewalk café on a cobblestone street? The varicolored domes of Moscow's Red Square? The expansive Great Wall of China or a floating market on the Mekong?

The world is yours to discover, and we believe the best way to make this excursion is along a river. Whether you choose the Rhine, Danube, Seine, Yangtze, Portugal's Douro or others—each river provides unique access to the character of the regions through which it flows.

THE VIKING EXPERIENCE

Immerse yourself in local culture, travel in comfort

Inspiring destinations, thoughtful itineraries, immersive cultural explorations, state-of-the-art ships, fine cuisine, excellent service and remarkable value—designed with personal attention to every detail.

We call this the Viking Experience.

It's the way your bartender has your drink prepared at just the right moment. The gentle guidance from your tai chi master during your lesson in China. Or the handwritten directions from your concierge to the oldest coffeehouse in Vienna. Every aspect of your time with Viking—from expertly prepared meals to carefully created enrichment programs and beautifully appointed ships—is planned to bring you closer to experiencing the most from your destination.

By owning and operating our ships, no detail escapes our attention. It is what sets us apart from our competitors. And, we never forget that looking after you well is how we became the world's leading river cruise line. It's why our guests return again and again. And why we have consistently been the most awarded river cruise line worldwide.

Embark on a delectable journey

It's been said that the best way to know a culture is through its food and wine. Both engage your senses and provide a window into the traditions and essence of a land. Our ships' dining areas are hospitable and inviting; our service is friendly, attentive and personalized. Our menu selections include regional dishes and contemporary cuisine to offer a variety of flavors designed to suit any palate.

FRESH FARE, REGIONAL DELIGHTS

Viking's signature "Taste of..." events introduce you to the food and drink of the region, such as our "Taste of Germany," featuring pretzels and sweet mustard, leberwurst and Kölsch. Hapsburg family members have been prominent in many countries but nowhere more so than in Austria. One of their grandest castles is Vienna’s Hofburg Palace; winter residence of Franz Josef I and his family, the palace now houses the Spanish Riding School (with its famous Lipizzaner stallions), the Vienna Boys’ Choir, the Treasury and the Austrian president’s office.

AMSTERDAM TO BASEL + 8 Days

Fairy-tale castles, grand cathedrals, historic cities, medieval towns and spectacular scenery—little wonder that the Rhine is one of Europe’s best-loved rivers. From Amsterdam and Cologne to Basel, this enchanting 8-day journey takes you past ancient vineyards and rolling meadows.

DAY 1 Amsterdam

Arrive in Amsterdam to embark your ship. The afternoon is yours to explore the city on your own, perhaps visit the Anne Frank House. (D)

DAY 2 Kinderdijk

Sail to Kinderdijk, a UNESCO Site, for a tour of this ingenious network of windmills and other flood management devices; enter a working windmill to see its mechanisms and living quarters. Return aboard for lunch; cruise through the night. (B, L, D)

✦ See the windmills of Kinderdijk

DAY 3 Cologne

Arrive in Cologne and disembark for a walking tour. Stroll through Old Town past St. Martin’s Church, and spend some time inside Cologne’s Dom, a remarkable Gothic cathedral whose construction was begun in 1248 and was only completed in 1880. Explore the dockside taverns, cafés and shops on your own. Dinner is served aboard and we remain docked until late evening. (B, L, D)

DAY 4 Koblenz & Rüdesheim

Proceed along the Rhine, disembarking to tour 700-year-old Marksburg Castle. Lunch aboard as you cruise the Middle Rhine, a UNESCO Site, where castles overlook the river from their hilltop locations. Arrive in Rüdesheim this afternoon. Spend free time in the pedestrian-only Drosselgasse and sample a glass of locally produced wine at one of the restaurants or wine bars. (B, L, D)

✦ Rüdesheim

DAY 5 Heidelberg & Speyer

Cruise through the morning enjoying the passing scenery. Arrive in Mannheim for a journey to Heidelberg. See Germany’s oldest university, founded in 1386, then visit the beautiful sandstone ruins of imposing Heidelberg Castle. Continue with a walking tour through the Old Town to Heidelberg’s renowned gates.

Rejoin your ship in Speyer and take some time to look around. You dock in full view of the imposing Romanesque cathedral, a UNESCO Site. Built in the 11th century, its soaring interior features graceful rows of sandstone columns and a large stained-glass window installed in the western facade during a later Gothic period. (B, L, D)

DID YOU KNOW?

Cologne’s iconic cathedral

With an average of 20,000 visitors per day, Cologne’s Dom is Germany’s most-visited landmark. This UNESCO World Heritage Site is the biggest Gothic church in Northern Europe and its distinctive twin spires crown the world’s largest church facade. Construction began in 1248 and it was finally completed—to the original plan—in 1880. In 2007, it received a striking new stained-glass window by German modern artist Gerhard Richter.

✦ Enjoy Strasbourg

DAY 6 Strasbourg

Dock this morning in Kehl and disembark for a guided tour of Strasbourg. See the European Parliament and tour the interior of the city’s famed cathedral. The afternoon is free to further explore this Alsatian city’s blend of French and German cultures—exquisite churches, medieval covered bridges, beautiful parks and some lovely Art Nouveau and modernist architecture. Dine aboard and enjoy free time this evening in the quaint city of Kehl. (B, L, D)

DAY 7 Breisach

After cruising through the night you arrive during breakfast in Breisach, gateway to the Black Forest. Dine aboard while you cruise on to Basel, arriving around midnight. (B, L, D)

A few highlights of your journey

Melk’s Golden Abbey

As you sail along a peaceful stretch of the Danube, you approach a gold and ivory imperial fortress, resplendent with elegant details. Once a palace, the abbey at Melk is now a Benedictine monastery, school, museum and a library housing some 80,000 rare books and scrolls. See its interior, featuring soaring frescoes on walls and ceilings, and a glorious spiral staircase, on your tour.

✦ See Belvedere Palace in Vienna

Bratislava Bronzes

If you look carefully, you will notice that not everyone in Bratislava is made of flesh and blood. Some of the Slovakian capital’s most beloved citizens are cast in bronze. The most famous is Cumil, the Watcher, peeking out from a manhole in the street. There are others here and there; keep your eyes peeled!

Treasures in Budapest

A quick stroll from the dock in Budapest takes you to one of the city’s best marketplaces—the Great Market Hall, established in 1897. A variety of shopping stalls await you—supermarket and fishmongers in the basement, greengrocers and spice vendors on street level, and fine linens, knickknacks and delicious Hungarian treats like sausages and sweet pancakes on the floor above.

✦ Take a guided walk in Passau

Sample Vienna’s Most Wanted

Luckily, two delicious treats on your Vienna to-do list—the traditional Sachertorte and the city’s famous coffee—can be savored together. The original Sachertorte recipe has been a closely guarded Hotel Sacher secret since 1832, but most coffeehouses sell their own versions. Enjoy a cup of Viennese coffee and a sweet treat.

A few highlights of your journey

A Baroque Beauty

Surrounded by Franconian vineyards, Würzburg is home to Germany’s foremost example of baroque architecture, the great Bishops’ Residenz Palace. In 1744 principal architect Balthasar Neumann fulfilled his grand dreams with the completion of its spectacular interior: see the sweeping staircase and the amazing ceiling frescoes by Giovanni Tiepolo in this UNESCO Site.

Picturesque Prague

Prague is a photographer’s dream. Charles Bridge, gorgeous any time of day or night, offers charming views of Old Town. Explore historic places like Wenceslas Square, Hradčany Castle and St. Vitus

Cathedral. Other landmarks of interest are the Astronomical Clock, Lennon Wall and Franz Kafka’s house in Golden Lane.

Moselle River Valley

Flowing through France, Luxembourg and Germany, the Moselle River joins the Rhine at Koblenz. Located on its banks is Germany’s oldest city, Trier, home to impressive Roman ruins; you will also visit charming medieval Bernkastel and Cochem, known for Reichsburg Castle and vineyards.

Rüdesheim’s Drosselgasse

An evening stroll along Rüdesheim’s famed pedestrian-only Drosselgasse is best enjoyed by savoring local vintages at one of its restaurants or wine bars. With many quaint shops and lovely cobblestone streets, Rüdesheim is located in the heart of the Rhine’s renowned wine-making region, where for centuries vineyards have nurtured wonderful white varietals like Riesling and pinot gris as well as Eiswein.

✦ Cochem, along the Moselle

A few highlights of your journey

The Danube’s Iron Gate

The Iron Gate area of the lower Danube River is one of the world’s most scenic river gorges. Enormous white chalk cliffs flank the river, which forms part of the boundary between Serbia and Romania. Marvel at the large carved face of the ancient Dacian king, Decebalus on the cliff sides.

Lunchtime in Bulgaria

Disembark for a full day’s excursion to Bulgaria’s former capital, Veliko Tarnovo. Explore Tsaravets Hill and the royal castle ruins; proceed to Arbanasi for lunch with the locals. Try a typical dish like shopska salad, made from chopped vegetables and a white brined cheese. Taste kavarma, a Bulgarian chicken stew made in a clay pot. For dessert, have traditional Bulgarian yogurt with honey and chopped nuts.

Home on the Puszta

Stretching across Hungary is a vast prairie known as the Puszta. Here the hardy, whip-cracking horse herders known as csikós lived and worked. Like the fabled cowboy of the American West, the 19th-century csikós have been romanticized in Hungarian folk songs, dances and literature. Enjoy an exciting demonstration of traditional Puszta horsemanship and other folk arts.

The Best of Budapest

The Danube River divides this Hungarian capital city and UNESCO Site into Buda and Pest. Explore both parts, starting with Pest’s National Opera House and historic Heroes’ Square. In Buda, stroll Fishermen’s Hill to Fishermen’s Bastion and Matthias Church.

Shop for handicrafts in Budapest

Beautiful Belgrade

Discover Serbia’s beautiful capital, Belgrade, whose history dates back some 7,000 years. Walk through the grounds of Kalemegdan Fortress and peek inside the Orthodox cathedral. Take the afternoon to enjoy the city’s gracious architecture or visit one of its many museums. After dinner, check out Belgrade’s famous nightlife.

A few highlights of your journey

A Baroque Beauty

Dresden, once named “Florence of the Elbe,” is now nearly completely rebuilt since its World War II destruction. Landmarks include the Semper Opera House and Frauenkirche. See the 18th-century Zwinger Palace, the Albertinum and the renowned Green Vault where Saxon monarchs’ dazzling crown jewels are on display.

Views of the Elbe River

The German Capital

Highlights around Berlin include the baroque Charlottenburg Palace and 13th-century St. Nicholas Church. The Berlin Wall, built after World War II to divide the city, was finally torn down in 1989, but reminders such as Brandenburg Gate and Checkpoint Charlie still exist as monuments. Explore Berlin’s many wonderful theaters and museums.

China from Europe

For nearly 200 years, Europeans carried on a love affair with porcelain from China. In the early 18th century, German craftsmen discovered how to manufacture high-quality porcelain, and “china” has been manufactured in Meissen ever since. You have the opportunity to visit a porcelain factory and museum in Meissen to observe artists at work.

Watch Meissenware artists at work

A World-Class Garden

In the late 18th century, Duke Leopold III of Anhalt-Dessau created a park modeled after the natural-looking gardens he had seen while visiting Britain. The Wörlitz Gardens are among the earliest and best-preserved English gardens on the continent, and since 2000, they are a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Enjoy a gondola ride through this enchanting landscape.

A few highlights of your journey

A Wine Like No Other

With a microclimate that is optimal for cultivation, the Douro River Valley produces a vintage exclusive to its region. Picturesque quintas—vineyards clinging to the river’s steep, sloped banks—produce a variety of grapes that blend to form the perfect port wine. Named after the seaport city of Porto, port is a Portuguese fortified wine aged in barrels in a cave (cellar).

Sample aged Port wine

Traditionally transported in boats called barcos rabelos, port is typically sweet and served as a dessert wine.

City of Seven Hills

Nicknamed the “City of Seven Hills,” Lisbon is Portugal’s capital and one of the world’s oldest cities. Experience local culture as you stroll the streets of the Bairro Alto, a shopping and entertainment district in the heart of the old city. A must-see is the Belém Tower; originally built as a fortified lighthouse, it is the famous place from which many Portuguese explorers began their voyages and a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

A Tile’s Tale

Everywhere you look—from churches and palaces to train stations and park benches—Portugal is decorated with

Tour Mateus Palace

azulejos. Tin-glazed ceramic tiles, the azulejos are used on floors, walls and ceilings as a decorative element as well as a functional one. Originating from Moorish traditions, the tiles are arranged in geometric patterns. In the late 17th century, Delft influenced a change to the blue-and-white portrayal of scenes from Portuguese history and culture.

A few highlights of your journey

Through Artists’ Eyes

Southern France has long served as a creative muse to artists who are drawn to its warm light and vibrant landscape. In the mid-19th century, painters such as Auguste Renoir and Claude Monet found inspiration here. Others soon followed. Van Gogh produced some of his most famous works in Arles, including Café Terrace at Night. Fellow Post-Impressionist Paul Cézanne based many of his own works on the countryside around Aix-en-Provence.

✦ Tour Lyon, France

Palace of the Popes

Inspired by conflicts in Rome, Pope Clement V moved the papal court to Avignon in 1309. He built the Gothic-style Palace of the Popes, which was home to seven popes in as many decades.

Vieux Lyon

On the west bank of the Saône is Lyon’s intriguing Old Town. The area developed during the Renaissance as part of the thriving silk industry; it is a maze of patrician houses and narrow passageways used by silk weavers to deliver their goods. Once you have your fill of exploring the neighborhood, indulge in some hearty Lyonnaise cuisine.

✦ See the Temple of Augustus & Livia, Vienne

Roman Artifacts

The Roman Empire’s reach was enormous, and evidence of the Romans’ presence in France is everywhere. In Vienne, guests will see the beautifully preserved Temple of Augustus & Livia, a Roman amphitheater and other structures. And in Arles, visit Les Arènes, an arena that seats 20,000 and is still in use today.

A few highlights of your journey

Tour Normandy's Historic Beaches

See World War II landmarks and Omaha Beach. Spend time at the Arromanches Debarkment Museum and pay your respects at the Normandy American Cemetery. On the way back to your ship, pass Gold Beach, Courseulles sur Mer and Juno Beach.

Visit the Normandy American Cemetery

Monet's Famous Garden

French impressionist Claude Monet lived and worked in a stone farmhouse at Giverny from 1883 until his death in 1926. Art aficionados have seen the place, with its picturesque flowers, pond and bridge, many times in his paintings. Tour the house and spend time at the water garden, with its Japanese bridge, water lilies, wisteria and azaleas, that inspired so many priceless masterpieces.

Gothic Rouen

Rouen is situated amidst the chalk cliffs along the Seine and filled with half-timbered houses and exquisite Gothic architecture. The city is known for its role in the heroic tragedy of Joan of Arc, patron saint of France. Tried and condemned for heresy, she was burned alive at the stake in Rouen's Old Marketplace in May 1431.

Explore Vernon

Camembert and Calvados

Camembert—a soft, creamy cheese, traditionally aged for at least three weeks—was first made in Normandy in the late 18th century. When in northern France, sample this buttery delight at room temperature with a slice of French bread and a few grapes or apple slices. And speaking of delicious, try some calvados—a brandy made from the plentiful local apples, which also produce a wide variety of ciders.

A few highlights of your journey

The World’s Largest Art Museum

Over the span of 250 years, the collection of the State Hermitage Museum in St. Petersburg, Russia, has grown to more than three million items including works from noted artists such as da Vinci, Michelangelo and Rubens as well as Cézanne, van Gogh and Picasso. These treasures are housed along the embankment of the Neva River, in the heart of St. Petersburg.

The highlight in this architectural ensemble is the Winter Palace, former residence of Russian Tsars including Catherine the Great—just one of the works of art you will see on your tour.

A Legend Restored

Constructed of amber panels backed with gold leaf and mirrors, the Amber Room was given to Peter the Great by a Prussian king in 1716. Installed at Catherine Palace in Pushkin, it was later extended to cover nearly 600 square feet with over six tons of amber.

During World War II, German soldiers disassembled the room and it was never seen again. In 2003, a painstaking reconstruction was completed, enabling visitors to once again enjoy its brilliance. Admire it on your palace tour.

The Heart of Moscow

In Russian, the word kremlin refers to any major fortified complex. But in Moscow there is one very special

✦ See the Kremlin in Moscow

Kremlin, adjacent to Red Square. Inside its crenellated red brick walls you will see four palaces and a variety of churches, monasteries and official buildings—as well as an enormous bell. The Kremlin also serves as the official residence of Russia’s president.

A few highlights of your journey

Encounter Ancient Warriors

In Xian, tour the mausoleum where Emperor Qin Shi Huang was laid to rest over 2,000 years ago, now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. There, see some of the thousands of life-sized Terra Cotta Warriors that were buried with him. Walkways provide a bird’s-eye view of the manmade necropolis where the Terra Cotta Army was discovered in the 1970s. Marvel at each man and horse, molded with its own distinctive features.

✚ See the Terra Cotta Warriors, Xian

Historic, Yet Modern

Shanghai is China’s largest city; with a population of more than 20 million, it is actually one of the world’s largest cities. Located at the mouth of the Yangtze River on the China Sea, it is also the world’s largest cargo port. Visitors enjoy seeing historic areas like the waterfront Bund as well as modern wonders like the stunning Pudong skyline. The city offers world-class museums, shopping, dining and nightlife as well.

That’s Entertainment

Enjoy the dazzling dexterity of the famous Shanghai Acrobatic Troupe during a wonderful performance. Their movement is art—tightly choreographed and rehearsed endlessly. Be amazed as these athletes spin, fly, dance and demonstrate balance and flexibility at their best.

✚ Tour the Shibaozhai Temple

Shibaozhai Temple

With the literal translation of “Precious Stone Fortress,” the Shibaozhai Temple is a wondrous sight along the Yangtze River. Originally built in 1650 hugging the cliffs high above the river, this Qing Dynasty architectural masterpiece now stands alongside the river, as the water level has risen with the completion of the Three Gorges Dam. Climb to the top of the 12-story red pavilion for spectacular views.

A few highlights of your journey

View from the Roof

Fly to the Tibetan Plateau, which, at an average elevation of about 12,000 feet above sea level, is known as the “Roof of the World.” Situated high in the Himalayas, the Lhasa Valley offers an impossibly blue sky and splendid mountain views.

Tibetan Culture

Your visit to Lhasa is highlighted by a family-hosted tea and traditional Tibetan cuisine. As you explore the maze-like Barkhor Market and other local landmarks, you discover a culture very different from that of mainstream China.

Tour Unique Landmarks

Walk through the world-famous Potala Palace, winter home of the Dalai Lama since the 7th century, and visit Sera Monastery, an active Tibetan Buddhist temple with monks in training. Learn more about the area’s history and culture at the Tibetan Museum.

The Gem of Hubei Province

Disembark your cruise ship in Wuhan, capital of Hubei Province. There you spend some time in the Hubei Provincial Museum, an unexpected gem. See amazing ancient artifacts unearthed in the area, including a beautifully preserved collection of ancient bronze bells—then enjoy a concert played on an exact replica of the bells and other traditional instruments.

✦ Rooftop detail, Lhasa

The Echoes of History

Tiananmen Square is one of the world’s largest public squares. See the Ming Dynasty Tiananmen Gate and the Monument to the People’s Heroes before you proceed to the Forbidden City, just across the street.

A few highlights of your journey

Panda Research Base

Chengdu’s Panda Research Base is the world’s largest, home to nearly 100 giant pandas plus other rare animals like the red panda and golden monkey. Founded in 1987 with six rescued giant pandas, the base has become a top destination to get close to these rare animals. On an in-depth tour, visitors see the panda families eating, playing and sleeping in their natural habitat; and they go beyond tourism to learn about the latest in breeding and conservation efforts.

Dr. Rock Residence

Immigrating to Hawaii, Vienna-born botanist Dr. Joseph Rock was responsible for the planting of over 500 species on the University of Hawaii’s Mānoa campus. In the 1920s he moved to Lijiang to study the local flora—which led to a 27-year study of Lijiang’s ethnic Naxi population. His National Geographic articles are believed to have inspired James Hilton’s novel Lost Horizon. Tours of Rock’s home and workshop are available, and the views of the nearby lake and mountains are spectacular.

Lijiang Old Town

Lijiang’s 800-year-old Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is surrounded by layered sandstone peaks said to have mystical powers. Strolling the town’s narrow lanes and canals, visitors can see the Ancient Wall Gate and the traditional adobe houses of the area’s colorful Naxi people, an ethnic minority community that is centered in the Lijiang area and believed to have roots in Tibet. The Naxi plant beautiful flower gardens in the courtyards of their homes.

✦ See Lijiang’s Old Town

Dazu Rock Carvings

A UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Dazu Rock Carvings near Chongqing are made up of some 50,000 statues, with more than 100,000 carved Chinese characters, dating back as far as the 7th century AD—images that provide unprecedented insight into China’s culture and ways of life from the Tang through the Song Dynasties.

A few highlights of your journey

Ancient City of Bagan

Capital of the Kingdom of Bagan from the 9th to the 13th centuries, this prosperous city had more than 10,000 Buddhist temples and monasteries constructed on its surrounding plains, drawing Buddhist pilgrims from as far away as India and Ceylon. The remains of some 2,200 of these comprise the Bagan Archaeological Zone, an unforgettable landscape. Highlights include Shwezigon Pagoda, a prototype for later Burmese stupas; Ananda Pagoda, with its fine depictions of Jataka scenes and colossal Buddha statues; and the Tharabar Gate, the last remaining of 12 gates to the 9th-century walled city.

✦ Shwedagon Pagoda, Yangon

After the great explorer Marco Polo visited Bagan around 1275 AD he wrote, “They make one of the finest sights in the world, exquisitely finished, splendid and costly. When illuminated by the sun they are especially brilliant and can be seen from a great distance.” Bagan’s golden age ended when Kublai Khan’s forces invaded in 1287. For centuries the city was nearly deserted, but the Burmese people returned during the British colonial period and have maintained the site ever since. Visitors can still experience much of what Marco Polo did so long ago.

The Road to Mandalay

Myanmar’s lush, verdant Irrawaddy River was famously dubbed “the Road to Mandalay” by Rudyard Kipling in the 1890s. The river is home to a wide diversity of fauna, including the beakless Irrawaddy dolphin. With an extensive network of irrigation canals, the Irrawaddy is vital for both transport of goods as well as for the rice, a main staple of Burmese cuisine, that is grown in the Irrawaddy Delta.

✦ Meet local children

Reclining Buddhas

When the Buddha’s life was near its end, it is said that he asked his disciples to prepare a couch for him in a grove. He lay there on his right side, facing west as he passed into nirvana. On this journey you see several monumental reclining Buddhas, including Wat Po in Bangkok with its golden Buddha and Kyaukhtatgyi Pagoda in Yangon which houses a 180-foot-long reclining Buddha, the world’s largest. The image of the reclining Buddha should not evoke sadness, but rather encouragement—these statues always display a peaceful demeanor reflecting the serenity that comes with the enlightenment that all beings may attain.
