OUR STORY

Family-owned and operated, AmaWaterways was founded in 2002; however, our river cruise story began well before that. President Rudi Schreiner was born in Vienna, at the heart of the Danube. His love of design drew him to architecture, but his even greater love of travel drew him to places far and wide. Combining both of his passions, and coinciding with the completion of the Rhine-Main-Danube Canal in 1992, Rudi became a driving force for river cruise travel—and for these efforts has been recognized as the “Most Innovative Cruise Executive” and was presented with the prestigious “Lifetime Achievement Award” by Cruise Lines International Association (CLIA).

Executive Vice President Kristin Karst brings extensive experience in luxury travel, river cruising and customer service to AmaWaterways. Rudi and Kristin partnered with Jimmy Murphy, a brilliant travel entrepreneur who built Brendan Vacations. His son, Gary, now carries on his father’s legacy in his role as Vice President of Sales.

From the beginning, our goal was to create a river cruise company that we ourselves would enjoy. To us, that meant excellent food and wine, comfortable and tasteful décor, ample space in which to relax, and staterooms with maximum views to enjoy the ever-changing countryside. With that in mind, we have been building one-of-a-kind ships with features such as our revolutionary twin balconies, with both a French balcony and an outside balcony, and additional dining venues; and in 2020, we will continue to innovate with our newest ship, the AmaSiena.

EXCEPTIONAL CREW, UNPARALLELED SERVICE

As you relax on your private balcony gliding over the storied Danube River, sipping a Wachau Valley Riesling from the delightful vineyard you visited earlier in the day, you realize travel is about so much more than the destination. It's about the journey; and when you journey with award-winning AmaWaterways, whether it's Europe, Asia or Africa, each day you'll discover exciting cultures, be treated to authentic experiences, indulge in delicious cuisine accompanied by perfectly paired wine and find thrilling adventures.

Destinations, ships, rivers and excursions may change over the years, but one aspect of AmaWaterways' river cruises that will never change is the way we connect with our guests. Warmth spreads from the first smile that greets you the moment you step on board and grows throughout your sailing in the relationships you make with everyone from your Cruise Manager to your waiter.

Our impassioned and professionally trained crew will always go the extra mile to ensure your vacation experience is as memorable as possible. Whether it's the way the Captain hands you a red rose your first night aboard, or the way the bartender has your favorite drink waiting for you seconds after you enter the lounge, our crew gets to know you and creates magic that turns into lasting memories.

Cruise after cruise, our guests continue to tell us what a wonderful experience they had, and some of their most treasured recollections come from the exceptional efforts of our amazing AmaWaterways family. The gestures of your crew will stand out long after your vacation has ended and will fuel your desire to come back aboard for a repeat performance again and again.

"AmaWaterways spends considerably more on high-quality food ingredients and wine and hotel crew service training than any other river cruise company."

EXPLORE EUROPE BY RIVER

The legendary rivers of Europe have long been celebrated in both prose and song. Serving as major highways during the rise and fall of ancient civilizations, these waterways have continued their crucial roles as sources of sustenance, avenues of transportation and facilitators of commerce. Throughout history, major cities, smaller villages and stalwart fortifications have been built along their banks. Today, travelers who sail on these magnificent rivers will encounter grand capitals like Vienna, Budapest and Paris, charming hamlets and towns, enchanting castles and other wondrous scenes from centuries ago. You rarely have to wander far from the river bank to discover a wealth of European art, culture, history and architecture.

THE DOURO

This major river of the Iberian Peninsula flows from its source in Spain to its outlet in northern Portugal. It is here that river cruisers will discover the Douro River Valley, the birthplace of Port wine and a designated UNESCO World Heritage Site.

DUTCH AND BELGIAN WATERWAYS

A series of connecting rivers, including the Amstel, from which Amsterdam took its name, connect the Netherlands and Belgium. A journey along these waterways in the spring offers many opportunities to watch nature blossom in breathtaking fashion in this picturesque part of the world.

THE GARONNE, DORDOGNE AND GIRONDE ESTUARY

In the corner of southwestern France, the Garonne and Dordogne rivers merge together to form the Gironde Estuary, which naturally divides the Bordeaux region into the Left and Right banks. Travelers from around the world flock to this region that is well known for its wine and other tantalizing gastronomic delights.

THE SEINE AND RHÔNE

The Seine rises in northeastern France near Dijon, flows through Paris, and continues westward through Normandy to the English Channel. The Rhône flows from its source in the Swiss Alps and travels south to the Mediterranean, linking thousands of vineyards and wineries in southeastern France.

THE DANUBE

Captured in literature, art and Strauss’s famous “The Blue Danube” waltz, this river is one of the world’s most romantic waterways. Extending for thousands of miles through central Europe, the Danube flows eastward, passing through four capital cities before emptying into the Black Sea.

THE RHINE, MAIN AND MOSELLE

The Rhine rises in the Swiss Alps and flows into Germany, where it joins its major tributaries, the Moselle and Main. Along these rivers are captivating sights that include grand cities, picturesque towns, iconic castles, stunning vineyards and verdant valleys.

THE EXOTICS

Walk the path less traveled. Discover the magic and beauty of a distant land and indulge your cultural curiosity. Whether you discover the sagas of ancient empires and colonial powers on the Mekong River in Vietnam and Cambodia, or you stare wide-eyed at a variety of fascinating species as they gather around a Chobe River watering hole in Africa, we are certain your experience will be forever etched in your memories and will leave an undeniable imprint on your heart for years to come.

HA LONG BAY, VIETNAM

WOMEN PADDLING THROUGH A LOTUS POND, HANOI, VIETNAM

ANCIENT RUINS OF TA PROHM, ANGKOR WAT, CAMBODIA

THE MEKONG

The Mekong River, also known as “the Mother of Water,” begins high on the Tibetan plateau and winds its way through China and the rainforests, plains and rice fields of five Southeast Asian countries before meeting the sea. The sagas of ancient empires, colonial powers and modern conflicts have unfolded along the Mekong for centuries. Even today, it is impossible to overstate the river’s importance for the many millions of Vietnamese and Cambodians who live along its vast length.

From the vantage point from the AmaDara, you can witness the compelling contrast of the modern-day river and its ancient past—an awe-inspiring spectacle that simply must be seen to be believed. You’ll have the unique opportunity to go off the beaten path to see small towns seemingly unchanged by time. While here, immerse yourself in the local culture and heritage of Vietnam and Cambodia. Authentic experiences in rural villages unspoiled by tourism offer you a chance to delve deeply into this life and its culture, and to witness the time-honored skills of local artisans creating exquisite handicrafts and delicacies using centuries-old traditions.

THE CHOBE IS CONSIDERED ONE OF AFRICA'S GREATEST WILDLIFE REGIONS

HIPPOS SPEND UP TO 16 HOURS A DAY IN WATER

CHOBE NATIONAL PARK

THE CHOBE

The life-giving Chobe River is part of the larger Cuando River that flows through the game-rich “Four Corners” region of Africa, where Namibia, Zambia, Botswana and Zimbabwe meet. It flows through the northern part of Botswana’s Chobe National Park where it attracts an almost unbelievable density of game, when water inland is scarce and migratory animals head toward the river.

Here, you’ll experience the “Land of the Gentle Giants,” Chobe National Park, offering one of the densest concentrations of wildlife, including the world’s largest elephant population. Be treated to up-close encounters with the animals in their natural habitat on safaris providing an extraordinarily distinctive perspective for wildlife viewing. Double decker barges let you venture into the smaller channels of the park, offering an unusual viewpoint to observe hippos and elephants; while driving through the park in open-top vehicles allows the safari to search a wider span and more easily follow game in motion.

VIETNAM & CAMBODIA TIMELESS TRADITIONS

Immerse yourself in the heritage and everyday life of Vietnam and Cambodia as you are transported back in time to another era—one where you'll experience the beauty of longstanding traditions of both these countries along the Mekong.

- ◆ Experience local commerce firsthand while watching skilled artisans make popular items, such as mats, slippers and silk scarves
- ◆ Discover exotic fruits and regional delicacies at vibrant, kaleidoscopic markets
- ◆ Receive a special Buddhist blessing in Cambodia's former capital of Oudong
- ◆ Try your hand at making rice paper during a demonstration by a local artisan
- ◆ Visit the Twin Mountains, known as Phnom Pros and Phnom Srei, and hear about the ancient legend regarding Khmer wedding proposals
- ◆ Hop on an authentic rickshaw in Hanoi, take a tuk tuk ride in Phnom Penh or mosey through a rural Cambodian village by oxcart, age-old modes of transportation
- ◆ Explore Vietnam's capital city, Hanoi, from its ancient temples to its French Colonial architecture and modern-day skyscrapers
- ◆ Admire the famous landmarks of Ho Chi Minh City, once known as the "Paris of the Orient," including the former Presidential Palace, Notre Dame Cathedral and the War Remnants Museum

WORLD HERITAGE SITES AND NATIONAL TREASURES

Vietnam and Cambodia are home to spell-binding UNESCO World Heritage treasures. Cruise the emerald-green waters of Vietnam's ethereal Ha Long Bay, considered by many to be the Eighth Natural Wonder of the World. And explore Cambodia's manmade wonder, Angkor Archaeological Park, a vast temple complex once lost under tangled jungle vines, and one of the world's greatest architectural achievements.

AMADARA SAILING THE MEKONG

The award-winning AmaDara is in a class of her own. Reflecting the region's unique blend of French and Southeast Asian heritage, the AmaDara is adorned with rich, dark woods that are elegantly carved, fine fabrics tinged with gold and French colonial décor accented by Mekong artifacts handcrafted by native artisans. Spacious staterooms and suites range from 251 sq. ft. to 502 sq. ft. and all feature twin balconies, both a French and an outside balcony. Plus, enjoy convenient interior access, unlike most other ships on the river.

Take a refreshing dip in the pool, stay active in the fitness room, or simply unwind with a soothing massage in one of three onboard spas. Savor authentic regional delicacies and Western cuisine in the Main Restaurant or dine at The Chef's Table specialty restaurant. Complimentary unlimited wine is served with every lunch and dinner, and house spirits, local beer, soft drinks and bottled water are available throughout the day.

Settle into your stateroom, and in the evening, be treated to a Welcome Cocktail Reception and Dinner. (D)

TUESDAY, ZAMBEZI QUEEN. Embark on an exhilarating morning boat safari to explore the Chobe River's diverse game viewing. Afterwards, return to the Zambezi Queen for lunch. Spend your last evening aboard with a festive African-themed dinner hosted by your crew—complete with singing and dancing. (B,L,D)
